

Record Vote Is Expected

Political leaders in both camps have made preparations to get out the entire vote in Scott County, Tuesday the 8th. An intensive fight centering about the Sheriff's race in the County, and an equally bitter fight over the gubernatorial race on the State ticket will bring reluctant voters in the open.

THE EDITOR SAYS—

Are you scratching or are you taking it straight?

All of us liars can now take a good, long rest and repent of our sins.

Hoover has cut his salary 20 per cent and us Democrats aim to cut it the other 80.—Dallas News.

Most of the political lying is over and it now only remains for the votes to be counted.

Vote early and but one time and that at the polling place where you belong.

We believe if a vote was taken on whether or not you were glad the campaign was over, it would undoubtedly be unanimous.

We just wonder if Brother Jack Johnson has helped or hurt the candidate he has been talking for, or if he has helped or hurt his employers' business which furnishes him his bacon and beans.

We are told Frank Van Horne delivered an address to the voters of Sunset Addition the other night and advised them to vote the straight Republican ticket. This is different from what he is advising Democrats. He wants them to vote a split ticket. This should be passed on.

The Standard has received quite a bit of free publicity through Sikeston's second newspaper for which we are thankful. The publisher of that paper several months ago gave orders to the carrier boys not to leave a paper at The Standard office, but somehow one of his extra papers finds its way into this office. A broadminded publisher.

Please be quiet, fellow voters, while we put the question that is before the house: All whose poverty has been abolished, whose garages contain two cars and in whose pot a fat hen nestles every day, will vote for Hoover; the others will vote for Roosevelt.—Paris Appeal.

We know some folks who have been out of employment for many months and are living on the charity of others, who still believe in the chicken in every pot, that will step up to the polls and vote the straight Republican ticket. It takes both confidence and guts to do this.

The political campaign just closed has been one of the most bitter and personal for many years. Why people get worked up over politics is strange, but nevertheless true. It means little to the ordinary man who is elected to office as the voter gains little or nothing and often makes enemies for life. There are just as honest and conscientious men in one political party as the other. It is the outs that want in is what starts the political pot to boiling, then fool friends add fuel to the fire until things warm up all along the line. After it is all over, we wonder why we get excited and generally feel ashamed of the part we took. But such is life in politics.

Before another issue of The Standard the country will have made its selection for President of the United States, and that fact recalls the words of James A. Garfield in his last speech to the voters in his campaign for the presidency many years ago. He said, "No matter who is elected, God is still in his heaven, and the government at Washington will still stand", and so it will today.

Germany has had five elections already this year and two more months to go. There are worse places to live than the United States when it comes to political campaigns.

Aren't you glad the political agony is about over. Many a man has jeopardized his chances of heaven by getting into a political row that led him to do things and say things that he wouldn't have been guilty of under normal conditions.

While The Standard editor is not a candidate for office, we understand Brother Jack Johnson, in a political talk at Vanduser, left the audience under the impression that we had a dozen or two Federal indictments against us. It is not stated whether they were past or present and it doesn't matter suffice to say we have never been arrested in our life, but may be at any time.

A box of Post's Bran Flakes awaits Mrs. Neal D. Kornegger at The Standard office. Simply clip this article and call at our office for your Post's Bran Flakes.

County and National Returns Via Wire Tuesday Night—I. O. O. F. Building—Free to Every Semo District Citizen

VOLUME 21

SIKESTON, SCOTT COUNTY, MISSOURI TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 8, 1932

NUMBER 12

ELECTION RETURNS BY WESTERN UNION TO BE RECEIVED TUESDAY NIGHT IN I. O. O. F. BUILDING

Citizens of Sikeston and this entire community are invited to be guests of The Sikeston Standard and the Buckner-Ragsdale Store Company Tuesday night beginning about 6:30 o'clock to hear election returns which will be brought here by Western Union and broadcast through a loud speaker in the I. O. O. F. building, formerly occupied by the Dempster Furniture Company.

This newspaper has made all arrangements with Western Union to receive the returns from all parts of the United States, and through the courtesy of the Buckner-Ragsdale Store Company, the reports will be announced through a loud speaker in order that everyone attending the informal gathering might hear and keep his or her own tabulations. Members of the Friendship Club of the Lodge will conduct a lunch stand where hot coffee, cold drinks and sandwiches or hot dogs will be served at the usual rate. The Lodge is offering the building free of charge, and whatever is made during the night by the sale of drinks and light lunches will go to the benefit of the organization.

It will be practically impossible to obtain a blackboard in Sikeston large enough to accommodate the returns in full. It is therefore suggested that visitors bring this issue of The Standard which contains much vital information about the election. A pad of paper and a pencil or two might come in handy.

According to the Election Service Bulletin issued by Western Union Congressmen will be elected in all States except Maine, where the following have already been elected: L. Carl Moran, R. (Dem.), and John G. Utterback (Dem.), Carroll L. Beedy, (Rep.) was re-elected. Election was held on September 12.

Perryville to Bring Band For Game Here Next Friday Night

Local school heads announced this morning that the Perryville football team would be accompanied by a first class brass band next Friday night, at which time the Bulldogs and the visitors will clash in the last home game on the schedule. Other Legion bands, drum and bugle corps here for the District Convention that day should pep up the game considerably. A record crowd of homefolks and visitors is anticipated.

The game is scheduled to begin at 7:30 o'clock, and the Legion program of activities has been formed to fit in perfectly. All visitors are being invited to attend the event.

Coach Mahew's team suffered an unexpected setback at the hands of New Madrid High School last Friday night. The visitors showed over a touchdown in the early part of the opening quarter, and the locals failed in several attempts to overcome the lead. Nevertheless, next Friday night will find the Bulldogs at full strength for Perryville.

Anderson Answers War Record Challenge Issued By Republican Opponent

TO THE VOTERS OF SCOTT COUNTY

My attention has just been called to an eleventh hour dodger put out by my opponent, F. W. Van Horne. This is the usual eleventh hour Republican habit of getting out misleading and false statements when it is too late for me to have my answer printed in the county papers and put in the hands of the voters.

In the first place, the alleged record put out by Van Horne is unsigned by anyone who would have this information. As a matter of fact these service records cannot be procured by anyone, including Mr. Van Horne and his political advisors, except in violation of the law, as service records are absolutely confidential and cannot be procured even upon subpoena in the trial of a lawsuit, except with the permission of the ex-service man himself. If Mr. Van Horne had been an ex-service man himself with a service record, he would have known this, but in view of the fact that he evaded service during the war while I was serving my country for over two years, his ignorance can be excused, but his tactics cannot be overlooked.

Although his dodger is full of misstatements, untruths and inaccuracies, he does at least give me credit for having enlisted when I was only eighteen years of age and within less than thirty days after the declaration of war. He also admits that I served for seven months after the Armistice was signed, or for a total period of more than twenty-five months. His statement, although misleading in many particulars, showing as it does only a portion of my injuries, admits I was disabled in the service for which I am drawing compensation. He, however, fails to refer to the fact that as a result of disabilities incurred by me during the service, I received treatment at the Base Hospital, Fort Sill, Okla., at the Edward Hines Hospital, Chicago, Illinois, United States Veterans Bureau Diagnostic Center, Cincinnati, Ohio, United States Veterans' Bureau Hospital No. 92, Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, and St. Marys Hospital, Detroit, Michigan; where the records would have disclosed the treatments I received over a long period of time because of disabilities incurred during my war service.

If I were not suffering from disabilities incurred while in the military service of this country during the World War, and had I not received an honorable discharge, I would not be entitled to draw compensation nor the bonus, which he refers to in said statement, nor would I be eligible for membership in the American Legion.

There is printed below a copy of an affidavit executed many years ago and filed with the Veterans' Bureau showing in part some of my physical disabilities, which Van Horne unfairly left out of my alleged war record when he published his statement.

I appeal to the fairness of the voters of Scott County not to be swayed, misled or influenced by this or any other false or misleading statements that may be put out by Van Horne or his supporters between now and the closing of the polls.

P. S.: While Mr. Van Horne was so busy having someone else look up my war record and telling the voters about it, I wonder why he has not informed the voters about his lack of a war record at a time when he was single, without dependents, was physically able to serve and had no excuse for not serving except lack of guts. Of course, we expect no commendation or approval of a military record from a slacker.

BURGLARS OPEN STERLING STORE SAFE SATURDAY NIGHT; GET $643 IN CHANGE, CURRENCY AND CHECKS

140TH INFANTRY ELECTS OFFICERS

Lieut. Colonel William B. Hitchcock, formerly Major first Battalion 140th Infantry, National Guard, was selected for that high post at a meeting of all officers in the organization at Caruthersville Sunday. C. O. Raine, Jr., was elected to the post of Major, 1st Battalion to succeed Hitchcock.

VAN HORNE WRECKS CAR OF DEPUTY ON HIGHWAY 61 SATURDAY

A sedan, driven by Frank Van Horne, candidate on the Republican ticket for Sheriff of Scott County, crashed into and damaged a car driven by John Lee, deputy sheriff, last Saturday night about 9 o'clock about one mile north of Morley on Highway 61. Both cars were considerably damaged.

According to Mr. Lee, who was accompanied by R. D. Clayton and Clyde Black, his party was southbound from Benton. A truck passed going north, and a few seconds later, the other car crashed into the back of his machine. The left back side of Mr. Lee's machine is damaged, while the front portion of the Van Horne auto was crumpled.

Lights of the approaching truck blinded Mr. Van Horne, he explained to Mr. Lee, adding that the wreck was his fault.

Mr. Clayton, who was riding in the back seat of the Lee car, was badly shaken up, but none of the occupants of either car was seriously hurt.

BENTON WOMAN INJURED IN AUTO WRECK SUNDAY

Miss Leona Timmerstein, daughter of the Benton postmaster, was injured Sunday afternoon, when a car driven by Wayne Bess of this city crashed into her machine while she was attempting to turn around in front of Frobose's Cafe in the County Seat town.

Bess was driving north enroute to Potosi when he struck the Timmerstein machine.

Mr. Bess escaped serious injury and returned to Sikeston with Elmer Montgomery, although his car was damaged to the extent of about $200. Miss Timmerstein received treatment for an injured knee, and was removed to her home.

MADRID DEMOCRATS STAGE COUNTY-WIDE PARADE SATURDAY

New Madrid County political leaders, and candidates on the Democratic ticket staged a county-wide parade last Saturday leaving New Madrid about 9 o'clock and visiting each major precinct in the area. Approximately 30 cars formed the parade as entered Matthes, to be joined there by others making a total of 50 before reaching Morehouse. J. C. McDowell, Dick Baynes and J. V. Conran were principal speakers.

THREE MARSTON BOYS IN JAIL OVER THEFT OF GUNS FROM MARSTON ARMORY

Three young men all of Marston face prison sentences in Federal Court because they removed government property from their home town National Guard Armory last January 12. Their haul consisted of three Army .45 automatics, 4 extra magazines, and 3 boxes of shells. They were caught Saturday, November 5 by Capt. A. D. Sheppard and Trooper Dace, co-operating with a federal agent.

The three youngsters gave their names as Marvin J. Simmons, 19, the "hard guy" of the lot, James W. Pugh, 17, and Jesse Oliver, 17, all of Marston. Pugh was picked up in Portageville, while the other boys were arrested at home.

Pugh traded the Army .45 to a Sikeston young man for a .22 caliber pistol. This gun was observed by Toots Nall, who informed Brown Jewell, Constable, who in turn informed the young man in question. He voluntarily turned the gun over to Gid Daniels, Daniels gave it to H. E. Dudley, a National Guard officer, and the latter placed the matter before Capt. Sheppard.

The register number had been filed from the gun, but the numerals were restored by some process best known to experts, and the property was finally traced through the National Supply Department as having been stolen January 12, 1932 from the Marston Armory. Pugh's arrest followed.

All three have confessed, and will be turned over to Federal Court for trial and sentence.

Burglars gained entrance to the Sterling Store office here sometime late Saturday night or Sunday morning, and made a clean getaway with approximately $420 in currency. A sack containing $83 in small change, nickles, dimes, quarters and half dollars was recovered by searchers, who also found discarded checks amounting to nearly $140. Thus far, all leads in the case have turned out to be false, although officers are still hopeful of finding some clue to the identity of the visitors.

A. J. Slayton, Sterling Store manager, did not discover the theft until Sunday afternoon about 1:45, when he entered the place to check up on a few minor matters. He found the office safe door open, and the knob turned to the last number of the correct combination. Further investigation disclosed that the burglars had gained entrance through the Armory, which has an upstairs connecting door with the Sterling warehouse. A door panel had been removed thru which the burglar entered the room, and then descended a flight of steps entering the office. One lone barefoot print in the oiled floor of the warehouse was left as a possible clue.

Deputy Constable Toots Nall immediately notified Capt. A. D. Sheppard of the State Highway patrol, and organized a searching party, which included Troopers, Nall and a Standard representative.

The money, Mr. Slayton explained, represented most of Saturday's sales, cash register change, and about $65 held over for the payment of petty accounts. It had been placed in 18 money bags and deposited in the safe about 11:15 o'clock Saturday night. He was positive the combination on the safe was turned.

The first find proved to be a flashlight, a screw driver, and one money bag carelessly shoved under the orchestra rostrum in the Armory. From this vantage point, the burglars could command

Scott County Democrats Stage Countywide Parade Monday; To Have Rally

Between 35 and 50 cars carrying Democratic County political candidates and backers passed through Sikeston about 10:30 o'clock Monday morning, picking up a dozen or more cars here on their proposed County-wide parade and speaking tour the day preceding the General Election.

Several comic floats, bells, noise makers, etc., were noted in the parade which was scheduled to assemble with other Democrats Monday night at the Court House to hear an address by the Hon. Langdon Jones of Kennett.

Cape Girardeau Bank Closed By Its Directors

Cape Girardeau, November 7.—The Sturdivant Bank failed to open for business today. A notice, posted on the door of the banking room in the H-H Building, said that it had been placed in the hands of the State banking department.

The Board of Directors, meeting late Sunday, decided to close the bank because of "frozen loans". It was explained these loans are ones which under normal conditions are good, but which because of depressed conditions cannot be immediately collected.

C. M. Duncan, an examiner of the State banking department, was sent here immediately to take charge.

Statement of Bank
A statement at the close of business Saturday night showed deposits of $942,000, this including $245,000 in public funds, money not held by local people. From the standpoint of deposits the bank was the smallest of the three in the city. Bills payable, the other liability of consequence, total $225,000.

Assets of the bank include $1,265,000 in loans and bonds and $43,000 in cash and in banks. A technical liability is a capital and surplus of $230,000, which, however, in the event of liquidation would be used in the payment of depositors.

As described in a statement issued by the board of directors the bank is the direct victim of "patriotic" moves three times in the past in which its directors stepped in and saved the city from a bank failure. Loans granted and taken from these banks, much of it on real estate now with a depreciated value, constituted the big handicap in continuing operation.

Matter of Loans
It was stated that the success of liquidation in behalf of the depositors will depend upon the liquidation of the loans.

A condensed statement at the close of business Saturday night follows:

Liabilities
Capital, surplus	$230,000
Savings deposits	183,000
Time deposits	183,000
Checking deposits	325,000
Public funds	245,000
Bills payable	225,000

Assets

Cash and in banks ... $ 43,000
Loans and bonds ... 1,265,000

The following statement, signed by C. M. Duncan, examiner in charge, was posted on the bank door this morning:

"Notice is hereby given this bank is closed and in the hands of the Department of Finance of Missouri".

Other Banks Open

Cape Girardeau's two other banks, the First National and the Farmers' & Merchants', opened for business as usual at 9 o'clock this morning and among the first to enter one bank was a merchant with a deposit of $4000, representing Saturday's business receipts.

The Sturdivant Bank was the oldest bank in Southeast Missouri, having been established in 1866 by Col. Robert Sturdivant. Until three years ago it was located on Main Street.

Officers of the bank were: President, Clyde A. Vandivort; vice presidents, John Tlapack and A. Q. Carter; cashier, Martin G. Bender. Charles L. Harrison was chairman of the Board of Directors and other members were L. C. Blattner, George W. Cross, Arthur W. Harrison, Harry I. Himmelberger, W. J. Kies, R. E. L. Lamkin, John Tlapack and C. A. Vandivort.—Cape Missourian.

They tell us of the blushing bride
Who to the altar goes,
And down the aisle of the church
Between the friend-filled rows,
There's Billy whom she motored with;
There's Bob with whom she sawm;
There's Jack—she used to golf with him—

And Don of happy tennis days;
There's Herbert, too, and blond Eugene;
They took her to the plays;
And there is Harry, high school beau,

Altogether, it appears, the relatives have drawn more than $100,000 from the State payroll in recent years, while future possibilities are infinite should Mr. Thompson be elected Secretary of State. ### The Frisco Receivership

Receivership for the Frisco Railroad, agreed to by the management before Federal Judge Paris, produced but a mild ripple in the financial markets, and that only because of what it might foreshadow elsewhere.

The attempt at voluntary reorganization without a receivership was foredoomed to failure. It required the agreement of substantially all bondholders, and all bondholders never agree to anything. Actually, the only hope the Frisco had of averting a receivership was in stalling the reorganization along, with the aid of government loans, until business picked up enough to cover fixed charges once more. Despite an excellent showing by the railroad in recent weeks, the recovery did not carry far enough for that. Appointment of the railroad's president as federal receiver, and of the general counsel as attorney to the receiver, indicates the intention of keeping receivership expenses down. It should be possible, now, to reorganize the line with justice to all interests.

Serious errors have been made in recent years by the Frisco management, but plenty of other business men and other railroad executives have made mistakes. Even today, the Frisco is not much worse off financially than some of the great railroad systems of the country. It will come back when business improves in the South, and the reorganization should put it in better shape for the future.—St. Louis Star and Times.

I Don't Like The Depression

I don't like the lost homes, the long lists of unpaid taxes published in the newspapers; the cutting and slashing of salaries and the doleful look on scores of faces.

I don't like five-cent beans because I know the man who grew 'em will not get over a dollar a hundred for 'em. He can't live on prices like that and neither can he buy the stuff I have to sell, or from the store next door.

I don't like the depression because it is unnatural. Everyone is on edge, friendships are sacrificed and we pinch and squeeze and get nowhere. No one dares blot out a new necktie, a cotton gown or a new auto because folks think we should economize. Because we buy no new autos we know that one man is knocked out of work for nine months and he must become a public charge.

I don't like the depression because no one is happy. Even my wife, who smiles in prosperous times, cannot get a kick out of dull ones. She gets less new clothes than she should and so the ready-to-wear and the dry goods stores are unhappy, too. Moreover, the merchantman cuts down his advertising and both he and I have less money to spend.

I don't like the depression because the whole world seems out of tune, and songs without harmony never please the ear. They are neither jazzy, tuneless nor classical. They croon along and then some wisecracker screeches "prosperity is just around the corner".

I don't like the depression because I know greed, avarice and the cardinal sins of mankind bro't it on—not overproduction, plenty and righteousness. Want, distress and sorrow always follow in the wake of war and Sherman and millions of others know that "war is hell". Hence a depression is a child of Satan.

I don't like a depression because values change. Money may buy more if you can get the money. It has more purchasing power but strangely enough it will not buy satisfaction nor happiness. Unless money can buy satisfaction, it has little value, hence I would rather pay 10 cents a quart for milk and know that I am not living on some farmers' losses, than to eat the farmers produce at half the price.

I don't like the depression because nothing tastes so good when it is cheap. Ham at 45 cents a pound has a savor that 12 and one-half cent ham can never have, even though it comes from the same hog and the same packer. Bread at 5 cents does not seem to have the same vitamin content that it does at 7 and 10 cents, neither does it toast as well. That's too much imagination, perhaps, but that's another reason why I do not like a depression. Imagination is the stuff dreams are made of and dreams become a nightmare when they are depressive.

I don't like the depression because there's nothing funny about it. You can't joke about it and you can't laugh it off. It's like a thunder storm—it scours the milk of human kindness—and curdles the optimism of men.

It makes poor losers out of good sports and upsets all the rules of the game. It throws pop bottles at the umpire and fills the score card with alibis. It rubs the wrong way because our right way can't even get to first base.

I don't like the depression because it makes leaky roofs, the plaster comes off the ceilings and the wall paper falls to the floor. It begets carelessness, and laziness waxes lazier on it. It makes everything look doleful and anything that has a hole in it, makes folks dependent. When they become dependent fewer folks become independent and no one profits. In fact, everybody loses.

I don't like the depression because it upsets the civic stomach. You give 'em facts about tax relief and it nauseates. You mention the H. C. L. of a few years and no one knows what it means. You go to the postoffice for your letter expecting a dividend check, and you get a slip of paper saying "our cash reserves are being held for the good of our stockholders". And then you wonder what a stockholder is. You get red ink where you expect to find black and banks tell you that it's a good time to pay something on your note. You borrow in prosperity and try to pay in adversity—and not sweet are the ways of versity.

No, I don't like the depression and neither do you, so the more you hate it and the more I hate it, the sooner we will drive it from the land. Hate brings on war but a war on depression requires no muskets, no cannons, no battle-ships. It's time we called back the white flag of truce! It's time to bare our arms, screw up our courage and polish up our spiritual armor! When we do that, the depression will be behind us, not ahead.

No, I don't like the depression but I do love prosperity because it tells that all is well with the world.—Fredericktown Democrat.

They Say—Says The Man About Town

By ART L. WALLHAUSEN

At last we have found a significant statement in the thousands of inches of bulgoma in the daily press. Mr. Hoover is to make a last minute radio appeal on election eve, we are told, from a moving train which will carry him to his California home.

The news story continues thusly: "Several White House servants were sent ahead today (Thursday) to prepare the Hoover home, indicating the President may stay there for some time."

Yes, sir, after Mr. Roosevelt and all the little Roosevelts begin taking their tea and toast over the White House kitchen table, Mr. Hoover will probably be permitted to remain at home for a long, long time.

The pealing of church bells is subject to a tax in Spain. That is an indirect tax. Over here we peel the taxpayers direct.

A Texas physician attempting to prove that an ailment and not his medicine caused the unexpected death of a patient tried to prove his point by taking a similar dose. He lost. The coroner said "accidental death" in both cases. Which goes to prove that what is good for the goose is not always good for the gander.

What Is ATHLETE'S FOOT

Over 30 Million Americans Now Have It—
Is This Dreaded Disease Becoming a Plague?

Athlete's Foot is a fungus germ (Tinea) which appears on the feet in the form of a little yellow blister, causing severe irritation and itching—especially between the toes. This disease is very contagious and is spreading with alarming rapidity among all classes of people. The failure to successfully treat Athlete's Foot in the past has been due largely to the fact that these germs liberate in the pores of the skin. Salves and liquids applied only to the feet do NOT PENETRATE THE PORES OF THE SKIN. Medical Science has recently developed an amazing treatment known as Merit Foot Powder, which laboratory and clinical tests have proved will positively kill these germs and restore feet so infected to a normal, healthy condition. It is simply sifted on the feet and into the shoes. Merit Foot Powder quickly eliminates excessive perspiration and flaking of the toes. It heals irritation and is unsurpassed for chafing and as a deodorant. Why suffer another day when this fast working treatment is positively guaranteed to overcome these distressing conditions or your money refunded!

er has but little to thank the St. Louis Republican machine for.

Not many of the people realize that the Democratic party is an outgrowth of Thomas Jefferson in revolution against the Centralization of Government idea of Hamilton's. This centralization would undoubtedly mean having the democracy of the United States of America soon falling in line with the monarchial ideas of Europe. Hamilton is the "Father of the Republican Party". Jefferson of the Democratic Party. It was Jefferson's chief aim to keep the "Forgotten Man" in the regulation of his government, but the poor devil himself is the guy that cuts his own throat.

MOST WATER PLANTS IN U. S. CITY-OWNED

Kansas City, Mo., November 3.—A survey of water supply systems in the United States recently completed by Burns & McDonnell Engineering Co. of Kansas City that 7533 are municipally owned shows there are 10,789 plants and 2936 privately owned. Those publicly owned are 72.8 per cent of the total.

Results of the survey, published in a booklet, also include comparisons of water rates and services in more than 250 cities. It was found that in 225 cities with municipal plants the average cost of 500 gallons of water a month was $1.41. In 25 cities supplied by privately owned systems the average cost was found to be $2.24 for the same service.

The growth of public ownership was shown by comparative figures, the municipally owned plants having been only 42.9 per cent of the total in 1896. The largest twenty cities own their waterworks. Among the 94 cities of more than 100,000 population, there are only 11 in which the water systems are privately owned.

The survey includes a compilation of revenues, expenses and net profits of 100 municipal plants serving a population of 9,077,724. The total revenue was $51,979,168, expenses were $22,696,804 and depreciation was $17,572,593, leaving net profits of $11,610,438.

Do You Want Lower Taxes?

The biggest State issue in Missouri today is that of reduced taxes, for our present tax burdens have become unbearable, and this applies to farmers and townpeople alike.

To this end, in the coming November election voters should vote "YES" on Constitutional amendments Nos. 2 and 3, and for the following reasons:

Amendment No. 2 provides for a more economical conduct of our State Legislature, limiting each branch to not over 75 employees, whereas past Legislatures have frequently employed as many as 800 or 900, and thus the adoption of this amendment will put a stop to our clerkship scandals which are of long standing, and for which both parties have been about equally responsible.

Amendment No. 3 provides for an executive budget under the control of the Governor, and requires him to submit estimates to the Legislature of the actual needs of the various State departments (instead of leaving it to the department heads) and gives him the power to reduce any appropriation (except for the public schools) if in his opinion it is too high.

The last Legislature appropriated $6,000,000 above the anticipated revenue.

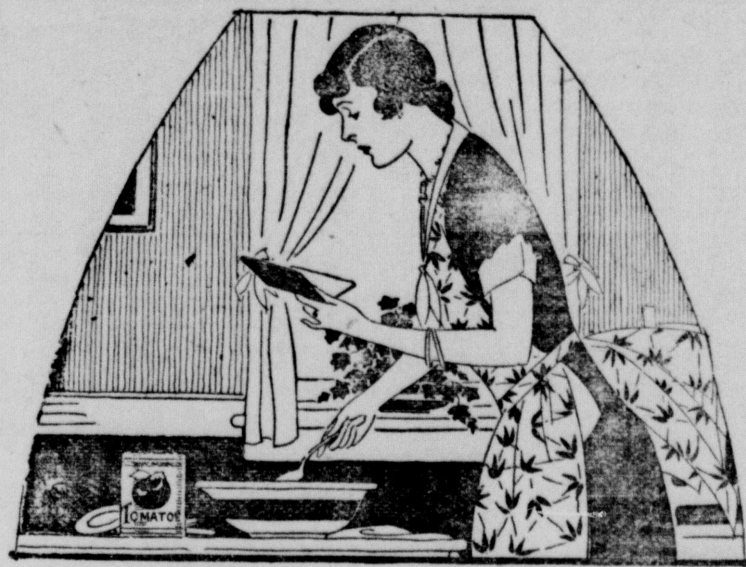

The above amendments, which in times to come will save our taxpayers millions of dollars, were proposed by the Committee on Taxation and Governmental Reform which is composed of five veteran Democratic and five veteran Republican members of the Legislature, and they have the unqualified endorsement not only of Missouri's leading farm organization and the Associated Industries, and the League of Women Voters, but they have likewise been unreservedly endorsed by our State Democratic and Republican platforms and the County Court Judges Association, and therefore they should be overwhelmingly adopted in the coming November election.

Because they do not understand them, many voters have formed the habit of voting "NO" on all Constitutional amendments. Amendments Nos. 2 and 3 have been especially prepared to reduce taxes, and to expedite the passage of legislation, and therefore, every individual who is interested in reducing taxes should vote "YES" by scratching "NO" on these two amendments.

When people have to pick cotton at 50c per hundred it means that both the parents and the children have to work all through the nice fall weather for the bare necessities of life, and then when the weather becomes bad the Red Cross will have to function. (Read the fourth verse of the 5th chapter of St. James). We have too much cotton, not enough clothes; too much grain, not enough bread; too much livestock, not enough meat, etc. People in want in a land of plenty doesn't sound right. It isn't right. Political salves and panaceas will never heal our wounds. Through a period of prosperity we all became selfish. It was "everybody for himself and the devil for his hindmost". Now the most of us are the hindmost and don't we holler. We've had our dance and

Colorful Tomatoes

RED is the Christmas color, and one of the most beautiful of the palette is "tomato red". Twicken your holiday menus with plentiful dashes of this gay shade about which artists and decorators are doing as much talking today as are health and home economics writers about the "newly discovered" health-giving qualities of the tomato.

A Bit of History

It was they are not so newly discovered after all. While for many years European and North American mothers were saying "Children, keep your hands off that naughty vegetable—it's pretty, I know, but it's poisonous!" other countries seem to have had a better opinion of it. The Aztecs had discovered that it was healthful to eat tomatoes.

and the Indians of Central America baked it and found it good for sore throats. It has even been suggested that the vegetable was named after Saint Thomas who, it is claimed, taught in Mexico and urged the Mexicans to cultivate it and drink tomato juice.

Be all this as it may—those who are best informed today urge us to eat more tomatoes. The United States Bureau of Home Economics recommends them in the diet at all times, fresh or canned, as the best single food for supplying four of the most important vitamins, as a preventive of a number of diseases, and as an important article of nutrition. Canned tomatoes are especially recommended for economy menus, because of the low price prevailing today, though shoe-ages indicate that prices will soon be higher.

	Number	Percentage
Roosevelt	1,715,789	55.99
Hoover	1,150,398	37.53
Norman Thomas	148,079	4.84

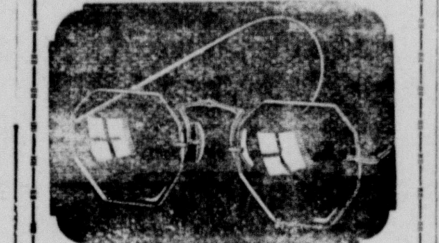

The President showed a slight gain from the 37.33 per cent of the total vote he had in the semi-final returns.

The final vote gives Hoover a lead in the seven States of Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut and New Jersey. Roosevelt leads in all of the other forty-one.

A division of the vote by an electoral college apportionment would give Roosevelt 474 votes to Hoover's 67.

In an analysis of how the same voters voted in 1928, Roosevelt is shown obtaining 37.19 per cent of his strength from former Republicans and 47.95 per cent from Democrats of four years ago. Hoover is shown obtaining 80.57 per cent of his strength from those who voted for him at the last quadrennial election and 6.15 per cent from Democratic voters of that year.

Roosevelt is indicated having a clear majority in thirty-nine States over all six presidential candidates represented in the poll.

Sikeston at last has an athletic pavilion or what not, the boys will go through their paces in strangle holds, running bowlines and etc., in this wonderful monument to some particular organization.

Big Prairie Township in New Madrid County is the first instance of public dependants going for politics in such a big way. The other night at a church function that consisted of a box supper and Republican rally, two constituents of the G. O. P., one who has for a number of years begged his fare from the Good Folk, and the other who is in a slightly better condition, defamed the community of Matthews, their home, and a gentleman seeking the office of Constable—both forgetting that he had befriended them.

In one instance the Constable candidate on the Democratic ticket, carried food to the family of one who was detained for a spell in the county jail on a liquor charge; then he threw all the influence he could to get him out of jail. The other he saved from having his property, a small amount indeed, taken in payment for unpaid merchandise—and this is the way public dependants appreciate the help they receive.

Machines! Machines! I'm so damned tired of hearing Machines! Pendergast is talked on from daylight until dark and finally the Democrats hit on the idea of pouring it back to the G. O. P. in a speech regarding Artie Hyde, Clements and Caulfield. It seems to me that the taxpay-

Farley Predicts Sweeping Victory For Roosevelt
National Chairman Says He Won't Concede a Single State

A deluge of ballots on November eighth, that will elect Franklin D. Roosevelt president by the largest majority ever given a candidate for public office, is the claim of James A. Farley, chairman of the Democratic National Campaign committee.

Predicting a plurality for Roosevelt of close to ten million votes, Mr. Farley declared that the American people were in no mood to continue the present Republican administration another four years.

"They are tired of promises," he said, "they are tired of temporizing; they are tired of lamentations—and their verdict is going to be rendered on November eighth."

"I appeal to the loyal Democratic workers and other friends of Governor Roosevelt throughout the country to take renewed enthusiasm from this indication of a magnificent victory, and to join with us in making it a clean sweep for the Roosevelt-Garner ticket, a sweep that will place every single State into the Democratic column. It is possible, and with a continuation of the loyal and conscientious effort of our friends, it is a goal that will be achieved."

"Now I have gone on record several times in the press of the country on this election, and I have repeated several times the statement that I made quite early in the campaign. I repeat it now: I am not prepared to concede a single State to the opposition, and when the ballots are counted on November eighth, I am quite sure that the result will show what I have at ways contended was possible—a clean sweep for Franklin D. Roosevelt and John N. Garner."

We want a change!
We believe there will be no real recovery until there is a change.

JOE ANDERSON, DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR SHERIFF IS WELL LIKED IN HOME TOWN

A few of the blood and thunder orators for the opposition party are belaboring the rest of Scott County voters with alleged "facts" seeking to establish the point that Joe Anderson is not respected in his home community Blodgett. Most of the allegations are based upon the statements of an eccentric old gentleman whose principle achievement in life thus far has been to get into trouble.

Sikeston and Scott County Democrats and friends of Joe Anderson might recall that Blodgett went almost solid for Anderson in the primary. But should that not be sufficient, the following letters from leading citizens of Blodgett might be used to good advantage.

G. W. Buchanan, president of the Blodgett Bank, says:

"This is to certify that I have known Joe Anderson most of all his life and have never known him to be a ganster or a drunkard, and the stories that are being told about him we believe to be untrue. As to his honesty and taking care of his obligations, we have always found him first class."

J. T. Nunnelee, president of the Blodgett Mercantile Co., says:

"Regarding Mr. Joe Anderson, who is a candidate for Sheriff, will state that Mr. Anderson, in my opinion, will do his duty when elected. Mr. Anderson has been dealing with the writer several years and wish to state that he has always done just exactly what he promised therefore, when he becomes our next Sheriff, he will be just the same Joe and will carry out his promises to the letter."

F. M. Withrow, owner of a general store says:

"This is to certify I have known Joe Anderson for a number of years and I have always found him a man (underscoring) of good morals and a friend to the needy. Joe is worthy for the office of Sheriff. We're for him One Hundred Per Cent here at Blodgett."

W. W. Lemons, grain dealer, says: "He is absolutely a man of his word—he is a man of good character, honest, straight and upright."

R. N. Minner says: "His word is as good as his bond."

The original copies of these letters may be seen in The Jimplucite window at Illinois.

Wouldn't it be showing good common sense to believe these men who know Joe Anderson, rather than listen to a lot of bunk handed out by people who are paid?

The campaign in Sikeston has taken a fresh turn over the week-end. The boys in the other camp are busily engaged in a desperate attempt to discredit Anderson's 25-month service record in the World War in order to regain lost ground for "Cinderella".

Such active workers as "Chief Deputy Dutch" Heisler (who served his country with a baseball bat and not in uniform) plus Frank Van Horne, who suddenly discovered a childhood injury to dodge the draft, were busy Friday and Saturday, pulling coat tails and whispering vital information about Anderson's record.

And so a hectic campaign closes. Joe Anderson has promised to keep Scott County clean, and to enforce the law to the best of his ability. We believe that his past record will bear him out as a man of his word. Furthermore, he is not afraid of man or devil.

The opposition has concocted many tales, and has woven a halo of goodie goodie about its candidate. He is a splendid man, a Christian gentleman and we hold no grudge against him. We do wish to point out emphatically, however, that he is running on a Republican ticket against a man on the Democratic ticket, who measures up to every qualification of a MAN. Everything being equal, why should any Democrat scratch his ballot, and by so much weaken his party?

LAST RITES SATURDAY AT MORLEY FOR AUTO VICTIM 5 YEARS OLD

Morley, November 6.—James Lewis Dyer, age 5 years, 9 months and 1 day, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Poe Dyer of Chicago, was run down by an automobile Sunday, October 30 and died Tuesday, November 1 in that city. The remains were brought to Fomfelt Friday to the home of Homer Dyer and funeral services were held Saturday at the Morley Baptist church with Rev. R. E. McElmurry of Fomfelt in charge. The family formerly lived here in Morley.

The parents, three brothers and two sisters survive.

Among the out-of-town relatives attending the services were Mrs. Fred Johnson of Bell City, his grandmother; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dyer and daughter of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dyer and family of Fomfelt and Mrs. Arthur Eachus and children of Benton.

THE IN-BETWEEN SEASON

THERE is a period of from a month to six weeks in May and June when the supply of fresh vegetables from the South has been exhausted and the home-grown truck garden vegetables from the North have not yet begun to find their way into the markets.

Asparagus, for instance is just beginning to appear, but the price is so high that it might as well be reposing in its early bed so far as the household of average means is concerned—which is nobody's loss, as canned asparagus is concededly better and surprisingly inexpensive. It is impossible to get fresh peas in the northern states until after the middle of June, but this, too, is little to be regretted since canned peas, including the delicious vacuum-packed varieties, are a food with which not even a Brillat-Savarin could find fault.

Anticipate the Shortage

In anticipation of this period of shortage of fresh vegetables the housewife will do well to stock the shelves of her pantry with plenty of canned tomatoes, corn, stringless beans and lima beans, peas, carrots, beets, asparagus, spinach, Brussels sprouts, squash and turnips. And while she is about it she might as well add some artichoke hearts and mushrooms for Sundays and holidays.

It is often possible to save quite a bit by buying canned vegetables by the dozen or in the specially priced assortments which many shops are now offering. This simplifies the family budgeting because it is thus possible to tell in advance just what must be allowed for vegetables, whereas the prices of fresh vegetables vary.

Save Time and Toil

Put the saving of dollars and cents is not all. By using canned vegetables, the housewife is relieved from such trifling, but tedious, paring, cutting and culling as is customary, and the time thus saved may be devoted to preparing more interesting dishes or it can be given over to other pursuits.

It may even be possible to accomplish both ends. For the housewife who wishes to eat her cake and have it too, we have arranged a collection of recipes especially designed for canned vegetables which make the most delicious dishes and which can be whisked up in such short order that there will still be plenty of time for shopping, calls, bridge, or delightful afternoon strolls in sun-dappled city streets or country lanes.

Here are the Recipes

Asparagus Salad with Cheese Carrots: Drain and chill one can asparagus tips, arrange in rows of shredded lettuce. Pour over French dressing made with lemon juice instead of vinegar and to which some finely minced pimiento has been added. Shape into tiny carrots one jar pimiento cheese, dust with paprika and insert sprig of parsley for carrot top. Use one or two for garnish of each salad. Serves eight.

Spinach and Bacon au Gratin: Dice two slices of bacon and fry brown. ## BULLDOGS BOW TO MADRID ELEVEN ON HOME FIELD

Last week-end marked the defeat, either actual or moral of so-called "favorite" football eleven in the district. Notable of course, is the overwhelming defeat of Poplar Bluff at the hands of the Cape Central Tigers who amassed a total of 42 points and blanked the Mules. Charleston's Bluejay outfit struggled to a scoreless tie against Jackson, and the Bulldogs humbly bowed to an inspired, scrapping New Madrid team to the tune of 7 to 0.

It is true that the same Sikeston eleven that turned the Bluff Mules' invasion into a rout, was not on the field Friday night.

The team was revamped in order to obtain a working eleven, but the summary statistics give the visitors a clean victory, nevertheless. The locals were clearly outplayed in every department of the game, and only on one occasion did they offer a serious threat.

New Madrid shoved over its counter early in the first quarter starting the drive from the Sikeston 31-yard line. Brown and Riley alternated with telling effect through the line, ripping off yardage and first downs. A pass good for 5 yards gave the visitors their second first down in succession. Brown was caught holding, and the rush was temporarily halted by a 15-yard penalty. Riley, however, ducked his head and reeled off 17 yards on a spinner through center, making up the penalty, and adding two yards for good measure.

The flashy fullback netted five more yards on the next play taking the ball to the Bulldogs' 9-yard line. The Sikeston line stiffened and threw Brown for a 1-yard loss on the next play. Riley added one yard, and on the fourth down a pass from Riley was good on the Sikeston two-foot line. Cravens pushed over for the one and only touchdown. It was plenty, however, because the visitors played headsup football during the rest of the game, and held the locals scoreless. Riley's kick for extra point was perfect, and the score read 7 to 0 in favor of New Madrid.

After the kickoff to Sikeston following the counter, Young gained 4 yards on the first play, and attempted a pass which was knocked down by Harris. Young made 5 yards at center, and then punted to the New Madrid 28-yard line. Riley carried the ball one yard as the quarter ended.

Sikeston suffered a number of heartbreaking setbacks in the game, and one of the lot came in the second play of the second quarter when a New Madrid punt was blocked, only to have the play recalled for a Bulldog offside penalty of 5 yards. Riley made his second attempt good, and the Bulldogs took the ball on their own 41-yard line. Jackson reeled off 20 yards at center and it seemed as though the long-delayed Sikeston push was about to begin. The attempt was promptly smothered, however, when three line plays netted only 4 yards, and the Bulldogs were forced to kick. Neither side offered a scoring threat during the remainder of the quarter which ended with New Madrid holding the ball on the Bulldog's 43-yard line. The gun barked just as the visitors started another play.

Brown called for a pass, but the attempt failed.

Bulldog Drive Fails
 Sikeston backers had their hopes raised in the third quarter when a sustained drive carried the ball deep into New Madrid territory, but that push was destined to flop also. An exchange of punts gave the ball to Sikeston on their own 43-yard line. Jackson and Young alternated, ripping off right tackle for gains of 3 to 5 yards, giving the locals three first downs in succession. The quarter ended with the Bulldogs in possession of the Madrid 25-yard line and a touchdown in sight.

A fuse snapped in the lighting circuit on the south side of the field, causing a temporary delay in the game.

The trouble was corrected however, and the Bulldogs settled down to business. Moll was sent in for Carroll as the quarter opened. Jackson hit center for 2 yards. Moll added three at left tackle, and Young made one carrying the ball to the New Madrid 19-yard line, fourth down and four to go. Young faded back for a long pass, but Jackson and Conley collided at the goal line just as the former was about to take the ball, and the attempt was marked down as another incomplete heave.

Brown crossed up the Sikeston defense on the next play by sending Riley around left end for 16 yards from punt formation. The secondary had to drag the shifty back to the ground. That ended the New Madrid threats for the evening.

A final march down the field for the locals was halted in the closing minutes of the final quarter.

Riley had punted out of bounds on the Sikeston 35-yard line, with the game just about over. About two minutes remained to play. Young skirted right end for 5 yards, a pass failed, but Moll made it first down on the Sikeston 48-yard marker. Moll added 3, and Young got away for 16 yards. The play was recalled, however, and the locals penalized 15 yards for holding. Another pass failed, and the locals kicked to the New Madrid 41-yard line. Two line plays netted no yardage, and Riley punted to the Sikeston 28-yard line as the game ended.

Summary: First downs for Sikeston 5, New Madrid 7. Yards gained from scrimmage, Sikeston 94, New Madrid 101. Yards lost in scrimmage Sikeston 10, New Madrid 7. Passes, Sikeston attempted six, five were incomplete, and one was intercepted. For New Madrid, 3 attempts, 2 completed for 13 yards, 1 incomplete.

Punts, Sikeston 8 for 267 yards averaging 33, New Madrid 4 for 114 yards averaging 28. Penalties, Sikeston five for a total of 35 yards, New Madrid two for 20 yards. Touchdowns, New Madrid 1, by Cravens. Kick for extra point, Riley of New Madrid.

Officials: Michie of Cape Girardeau, referee; Hugh May of East Prairie, umpire. Timers, Malcolm and Sanders.

The Bulldogs will have their full strength in the field against Perryville here next Friday night, at which time hundreds of visitors and delegates to the American Legion Convention are expected to be present. Perryville has an undefeated eleven in the field, and one of the smoothest working machines of any high school in the country.

Judging from their past record the Bulldogs should be able to put up a game fight. Thus far,

THANKSGIVING PRAYER

I thank Thee, Lord, that every day
 Thou sendest men across my way
 Who need my help, my heart, my hand!
 I pray that I may understand
 Thy will and purpose every hour,
 That by the richness of Thy power,
 Vouchsafed to me, Thy will be done—
 And if perchance some soul is won
 By Thee, through me, to higher thought;
 Or hath the brighter vision caught,
 'Twill be my greatest happiness!
 I thank Thee, if some soul's distress
 By Thee, through me, hath been assuaged;
 Or if, where passion's tumult raged,
 I spoke Thy word and calmed the storm!
 Take Thou my life as clay, and form
 Its lines as Thou desirest; then,
 If I reflect Thy thought, all men
 Shall better be, who come my way!
 Each day shall be Thanksgiving day!

Hackensmitz-Morris Match Booked For November 11th On Winner Take All Basis

A first class mat car? is being arranged for the entertainment of Armistice Day Legionnaires and visitors here, according to members of the program committee.

The boys will feature a tussle between Wild Irish Jimmie Morris of Memphis, weight 195 pounds, and Young Hackensmitz, 195-pound local contender. The two heavies have met before in one of the roughest of rough and tumble matches ever staged in the South. It resulted in a dual disqualification by the Memphis Commission, and disbarment for Morris from the State for one year.

Morris is not exactly a "dirty" fighter, but he does invent rules of his own during a match. Those who follow the mat game closely here, claim that Hack will have his hands full to dispose of Morris within the time limit of two hours.

Wade Tucker, local wrestling king, has advanced the opinion that Hack in previous matches near here, including his first appearance two weeks ago under Legion auspices, has merely experienced a light workout. When asked why he did not sign up a match with Hackensmitz, Tucker advanced two reasons, one that a three-year absence from the mat game had done little to toughen him for a match, and the second that Hack was one of the fastest boys on the semi-pro list.

Morris is confident he can handle the local product. In fact, he is willing to wrestle for nothing should he fail to win the Armistice Day match. If he should win, however, Hack would have nothing for his trouble, but the experience. It is to be a match in which winner takes all.

The other match on the double bill will find Joe Kelly of Mississippi and the best offering of the district in the ring. Kelly is now training here under the expert eye of Hack and expects to remain in Sikeston during the winter.

The matches will be held beginning about 4 o'clock in the I. O. O. F. Building.

IN DEFEAT OF MATTHEWS

A blocked punt in the opening minutes of the Doniphan-Matthews tilt at Matthews Friday afternoon was largely responsible for a 7 to 0 victory for Doniphan. The unfortunate fumble occurred on the home team's 8-yard line, from which point the Doniphan gridders scored on two line plays. During the remainder of the game the teams battled on fairly even terms.

Phil Baxter, who is known as the composer of several popular numbers, and as a famous orchestra director, is bringing his band to Sikeston on November 14 for an engagement through arrangements made with Music Corporation of America.

Baxter, who comes from a musical family, played his first professional engagement at the age of fourteen when he dropped out one tune on a third rate piano in a noisy skating rink. During his whole eventful and successful career he never learned to read a written note of music, but Phil is unusually sensitive to rhythm and harmony.

While in service during the war, he played the piano, dealing mostly in harmony chords. Paul Whitman played the fiddle to his accompaniment, and the two made it their duty to entertain sick sailors and marines at a hospital on Mare Island, Calif. Rudy Weidoff, of saxophone renown, was the marine bandmaster. From Whitman and Weidoff young Baxter learned a great deal about music that interested him; his association with them was more instructive than any amount of printed matter and a metronome would have been.

After the war ended, Phil joined an orchestra as pianist and later organized his own band. Baxter and his orchestra have played many notable engagements including Torreon Ballroom, Kansas City New Coliseum, Tulsa; Steel Pier, Atlantic City; Rice Hotel, Houston, and Coney Island, Cincinnati.

Phil has also won national fame as the writer of popular songs, among which "Piccolo Pete", "Harmonica Harry", "One Man Band", and "Blame it on the Moon" are best sellers.

Charles Graham Lindley, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lindley, south of Sikeston, on last Saturday morning in four hours picked 145 pounds of cotton. ## LOCAL AND PERSONAL FROM MORLEY

(By Mrs. C. A. Stallings)

(Items for last week)

A Halloween carnival given Monday night by the Morley school provided charming diversion. The gym where the autumn festival took place, was long and brilliant with colors from the lighted Jack o' lanterns casting a mystic glow. The corn fodder and pumpkins which were placed in bundles in isolated places, gave emphasis to the harvest note. In odd arrangements were limbs bearing the marvelous array of autumn glory, thus creating the typical October scene. Witches, goblins, skeletons, blackcats, and weird owls predominated in the decorations. Mysterious forms began gliding in from nowhere, it seemed, and their ghostly appearance awakened the people to a shout of laughter. Ghosts, witches, negroes, old hobbling ladies, clowns and others in deceptive robes prevailed everywhere.

The girls' and boys' Glee Club, directed by Mrs. Finney, rendered a number of beautiful selections. Other members of the high school students, acted a number of short plays. A Halloween parade, representing the different masked characters proved to be very comical. Bill Allen won the prize for being the most cleverly masked.

Interesting games, furnished entertainment until the popularity contest began. A close race was run between a Freshman and a Senior—Gladys Ward and Camille Emerson. The latter winning by a few votes.

The sum of $50 was realized from the carnival which will be used for athletics in the Morley school.

A robust woman lost her thumb in a trolley accident.

"But, why," asked the company's attorney, "do you think that your thumb was worth twenty thousand dollars?"

"Because," she replied, "it was the thumb I kept my husband under."

"I wouldn't cry like that if I were you, little girl," said the lady.

Little Girl: "Well, you can cry any way you like, but this is my way."

MISSOURI HISTORY

Courtesy Missouri Historical Society

(Floyd C. Shoemaker)
William Jewell College at Liberty, Mo., came into existence as a result of the desire of the Missouri Baptist General Association to establish an institution of general higher education and to train students for the ministry. The location of the college, its naming, and its beginning history are closely identified with Col. Alexander W. Doniphan, who was not a Baptist but whose name is indelibly written into the history of Missouri.

It was on November 12, 1849, eighty-three years ago this week, that the college board of trustees first met at Liberty. Roland Hughes of Howard County was elected president of the Board and William C. Ligon, secretary. Steps were taken then toward the opening of the College in the old Liberty Academy on January 1, 1850.

Efforts by the Baptist to found a college had been started in the 1830's but nothing definite was accomplished until 1843, when Dr. William Jewell of Columbia, offered $10,000 toward the founding of a college. Dr. Jewell's offer was not accepted then, but on February 27, 1849, Governor King approved an act of the General Assembly, chartering a proposed institution of the Baptists.

A convention of subscribers to the new college was called to assemble at Booneville on August 21, 1849. In the meantime, strenuous efforts had been made in Clay County to obtain the location of the college. Col. Doniphan, who had but recently returned from service in the Mexican war at the head of the famous Doniphan Expedition, was induced to speak throughout the county in an effort to raise enough subscriptions to win the new college for Clay County. But the counties of Marion, Callaway, Boone, Howard and Cooper also were working actively for the location of the college.

The Booneville meeting was called to order by Wade M. Jackson; William Carson was chosen president, with E. B. Cone as secretary. The Rev. J. M. Peck, then of Illinois, but a veteran Baptist minister of Missouri, offered the prayer. It was then that Col. Doniphan nominated Liberty as the site for the college. Callaway, Marion and Cooper County delegates also offered sites in their counties. Just before the balloting, according to Dr. L. M. Lawson, who has written on the founding of William Jewell College, Dr. Jewell offered to the convention $10,000 in lands for the benefit of the proposed college, provided the donor might cast a corresponding number of votes for the location. After strenuous objections from Col. Doniphan and others, the offer of Dr. Jewell was declined.

Each vote cast represented one share of stock in the college at $48 a share. When the votes were counted, Liberty had won by a majority of 193. The ballot stood: Booneville, 107; Palmyra, 194; Fulton, 44; and Liberty, 538. Dr. Lawson said that the votes of Howard county were cast in favor of Liberty, thus assuring the election for Clay County.

The naming of the new college remained yet to be done. According to Dr. Lawson, the work attendant on the selection of a site had occupied the whole of August 21, so the convention adjourned until the next day. In the meantime, Col. Doniphan, according to Lawson's account, prepared a resolution outlining the labors of Dr. Jewell in the cause of liberal culture, and proposing that the college be called "William Jewell College". This resolution was offered the next day by the Rev. William C. Ligon, seconded by Doniphan and unanimously adopted. In gratitude, Dr. Jewell donated to the College, lands in Missouri worth $10,000 and afterward gave the institution a large part of his wealth.

The Rev. E. S. Dulin was "Principal" of the College at its opening in 1850. The new College building, Jewell Hall, was used in 1853, although it was not completed until 1858. The presidents and heads of the College have included: Rev. R. S. Thomas, Rev. William Thompson, Rev. Edwin I. Owen, Rev. Thomas Rambaut, Rev. William R. Rothwell, Prof. James G. Clark, Dr. John P. Greene, Dr. David Jones Evans, Dr. Harry Clifford Wayman and Dr. John F. Herget, president since 1928.

The first building of the College was erected on land donated by Judge James T. V. Thompson of Liberty. Today the College has a campus of 1000 acres and numerous buildings. From an enrollment of 137 during the year 1850-1, the College has grown until the catalog of 1930-1 showed a total in all divisions and sessions of 602.

GEESE THINK GREENHOUSE IS A POND AND DIVE IN

Carthage, Mo., November 1.—Guy Tadlock, greenhouse owner, was sweeping up glass and feathers today.

Wakened from a sound sleep during the early hours of the morning by a terrifying crash, he rushed to his glass-covered nursery to find a flock of wild geese, confused by the city lights had mistaken the expanse of glass for a pond and crashed through fifty panes.

The frightened geese inside were endangering more windows and Tadlock alarmed, opened doors and drove them all out. They lost no time in continuing their flight southward.

BRITISH-FRENCH STOCKADE IS RESTORED IN MICHIGAN

Mackinaw City, Mich.—The stockade of Fort Michillimackinac, a British and French outpost from 1712 to 1781, and scene of the famous Indian massacre of June 4, 1763, is being restored.

The line of the fort's stockade has been traced by excavations which disclosed stumps of upright logs still existing a foot or two beneath the surface. Crude hardware, muskets and many other relics also were uncovered.

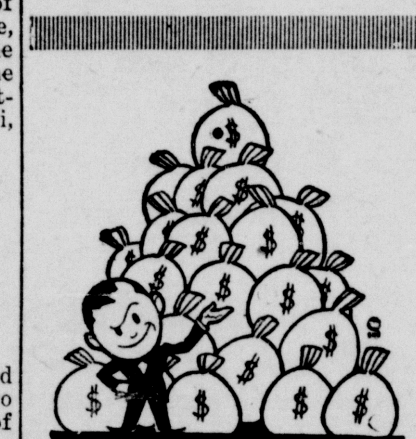

Seventy-one British soldiers were killed in 70 minutes at the fort in 1763 when the Chippewas made a surprise attack after inviting the soldiers out to watch a game of baggatiway. The soldiers were overpowered when the Indians rushed inside the stockade, apparently in pursuit of a ball battered over the wall.

The Economy of Proper Equipment

Makeshift equipment of any sort is COSTLY. "Getting off cheaply" at the moment may involve tremendous expense in the long run, and millions of home builders have discovered this to their sorrow.

Cheap, make-shift plumbing equipment—more than one-third of which is buried from sight in earth, walls and foundations—may cause great trouble and expense when it breaks down, as it surely will. GOOD EQUIPMENT, installed by experienced master plumbers who apply engineering science to their trade, is an investment in economy, good health and happiness.

"ALLIED YOUTH" FORMED IN CHARLESTON SUNDAY

Charleston, October 31.—Sunday night, the first branch of Allied Youth organized in Missouri, outside of the major cities, was formulated in Charleston. Answering a call from the leaders in all the churches seventy-five young people responded and enrolled as charter members of this unit of the Allied Youth for Prohibition. F. H. Scofield, Jr., was appointed as temporary president. The organization work will proceed this week with all expediency and a meeting will be called soon to elect permanent officers. This organization will have a dual purpose. It shall be an inspiration to the young people of Charleston to lead a temperate and moral life under the guidance of God; and it shall bring the truth of prohibition to those young people who never saw a saloon and who have been misled by the present wet propaganda.

The Allied Youth for Prohibition is a little more than one year old. It is led by Fred S. Stripp, Jr., athlete in the University of California, who is the new 1932 National President. At the time of the National Convention in June at Atlantic City, N. J., resolution in support of the 18th Amendment was presented to President Hoover by a committee representing a 1,500,000 enrollment.

Sunday night, after the meeting, Wallace Lee Oliver of St. Louis, said: "This meeting illustrates and confirms my belief in American Youth. A few bad ones do not contaminate the majority of young people. All we want is a chance to be good and we do not believe that this would be easy and in many cases possible with an inviting saloon on every corner. When seventy-five young people stand before me with a bright intelligent countenance as these young people have done tonight, and raise their right hands and repeat with me, 'God helping me I will see this thing through', I rest assured that the future of National Prohibition is sound. To those who attempt to defame us young people, I say that a Ford full of drunk fools out here on the highway will cause more comment than a church packed with young people trying to do what is righteous."

The Forgotten Man

By EDWIN MARKHAM

Dedicated to Franklin D. Roosevelt, after hearing his lofty and noble appeal for the Forgotten Man.

—Edwin Markham

NOT on our golden fortunes builded high—
Not on our boasts that soar into the sky—
Not upon these is resting in this hour
The fate of the future; but upon the power
Of him who is forgotten—yes, on him
Rest all our hopes reaching from rim to rim.
In him we see all of earth's toiling bands,
With crooked backs, scarred faces, shattered hands.

HE seeks no office and he asks no praise
For all the patient labor of his days.
He is the one supporting the huge weight;
He is the one guarding the country's gate.
He bears the burdens on these earthly ways:
We pile the debts, he is the one who pays.
He is the one who holds the solid power
To steady nations in their trembling hour.
Behold him as he silently goes by,
For it is at his word that nations die.

SHATTERED with loss and lack,
He is the man who holds upon his back
The continent and all its mighty loads—
This toiler who makes possible the roads
On which the gilded thousands travel free—
Makes possible our feasts, our roaring boards.
Our pumps, our easy days, our golden hoards.
He gives stability to nations: he
Makes possible our nation, sea to sea.
His strength makes possible our college walls—
Makes possible our legislative halls—
Makes possible our churches soaring high
With spires, the fingers pointing to the sky.

SHALL then this man go hungry, here in lands
Blest by his honor, builded by his hands?
Do something for him: let him never be
Forgotten: let him have his daily bread:
He who has fed us, let him now be fed.
Let us remember all his tragic lot—
Remember, or else be ourselves forgot!

ALL honor to the one that in this hour
Cries to the world as from a lighted tower
Cries for the Man Forgotten. Honor the one
Who asks for him a glad place in the sun.
He is a voice for the voiceless. Now, indeed,
We have a tongue that cries the motto true.

Toddling from Mother to 'Mike' Was Start of 'BIX'S' Radio Career

ROBERT BIXBY

Going directly from nursery to stage was the unique experience of Robert Bixby, popular young radio and stage juvenile.

Robert Bixby—"Bix" to his friends, the popular young juvenile who plays the part of Bobby Regent in that gripping radio serial "Chandu the Magician" first smelt grease paint at the age of four and he's been before the public ever since.

'Bix's' mother was an actress and so his transition from the nursery to the stage was inevitable. Between the ages of nine and eleven, he toured the East in various productions and when he was twelve, he made his debut as a radio singer.

After a year of that he went to the stage, where he played so many bad boys and incorrigible little brothers of leading women, that today at the age of twenty, his friends are kept in a quandary as to just what prank he'll think of next.

'Bix' isn't very tall, but he's fairly slim, has blonde hair and hazel eyes and is regarded as a typical American youth—for he doesn't believe in standing or sitting still for more than a minute at a time.

As a popular young juvenile, at one time he edited a series of advertisements called "Bobby Says"—all about what the well-dressed young man wears, and Bobby still says and knows.

When 'an enthusiastic young voice' was needed to play the role of Bobby Regent in the "Chandu the Magician" radio serial that is thrilling millions nightly, it was natural for 'Bix' to get the role.

Portraying the part of Bobby Regent with his customary energy and enthusiasm, 'Bix' regards it as the greatest role ever given to a youngster.

SIKESTON MUNY PLANT DISCREDITED IN FIGHT AT PARAGOULD, ARK.

The Sikeston Standard is in receipt of an interesting letter from Paragould, Ark., dated November 2 from Rupert C. Wright, editor of the Paragould Daily Press. The letter should be of interest to every loyal citizen of Sikeston inasmuch as Mr. Wright has a bit of information which will shed additional light upon the operations of the Power Trust especially during election time.

We quote Mr. Wright: "The writer has heard quite a number of reports, many of them adverse reports, with reference to the success of the Sikeston municipally-owned and operated light plant, we would be very glad to receive from you some specific information upon the subject. We recently published a statement from your plant but that was for a period ending during last spring. What we would like to know is how the enterprise is faring now and if the citizens of Sikeston, as a whole, are favorably impressed with the venture the city has made.

"You perhaps have read that we conducted an election upon the municipal proposal here Monday of last week and the proposal was defeated by a majority of 18 votes. But such an election it was. Since the opposition was inclined to discredit the Sikeston plant, we are wanting the straight situation so that we shall be safe in dealing with the situation there editorially."

Well, Mr. Wright, we could give you the straight about a great many things and one thing in particular. The paid agents of the folks you have to fight in such an election will stop at nothing, to win their point. If they have not already done so, you people will be brought face to face with the 'tax' bugaboo. This bugaboo exists mostly in the minds of the High Line folks, but it is usually very efficient in scaring into their camp the bankers of your city, the large property owners, and a nice handful of small property owners.

You can quote us or you can come up in person and investigate our city tax books, but not one cent has been collected in Sikeston in taxes for the construction, maintenance or operation of the Sikeston municipal light and power plant. And boy, oh boy, we were fed with a load of propaganda on the tax proposition before our own little fight.

That's club No. 1. We must anticipate a little in writing this because you failed to give us specific instances in which the local plant was discredited.

We might digress a moment, however, and point out that that is one of the salient factors in such a Power Trust Fight. You cannot lay your finger upon any certain point, nor can you trace to its origin any such rumor. They are a clever people.

You might tell the folks in Paragould that they will be welcome to visit our city, daytime or night. At night we have a mighty fine white way system lighted in the business district, and if you or the Power boys down there think we're not proud of those lights, you're crazy.

And furthermore, Sikeston taxpayers have never paid a dime of the installation costs of those lights (which are as modern as skilled engineering can make them) or the plant.

You mention, Mr. Wright, that you want a specific information in order to combat editorially some of the adverse reports from our city. You have us there. You see, we have only been in the newspaper business here for sixteen consecutive years, and we, perhaps will not be in a position to give you as much information about our city as some of the paid agents who have visited your city in order to discredit Sikeston. You will find that to be the truth.

We do have a plant erected in 1930, at a cost of $150,000 for which bonds were issued. To date every interest payment has been met, and several thousand dollar bonds have been redeemed although they do not fall due for five or six years.

It is the boast of the Missouri Utilities Company, which is in business here also, that the Missouri Utilities Company maintains the lowest rate schedule of any electric company in the Middle West. You might tell your people, Mr. Wright, that the Sikeston Municipal light plant charges its customers the same, identical rates, no more and no less.

The politics bugaboo is another skeleton usually hauled into a fight such as yours. We have solved that question successfully to date by having the Mayor appoint a bi-partisan Board of Public Works, which actually runs the plant, dictates its policies, leaving actual management and supervision to a superintendent hired and fired by itself. The Board is answerable only to the Mayor and City Council.

You have not given us much to work on Mr. Wright, but please allow us to extend an invitation to visit us, spend a day and night up here in Missouri. You will go back preaching the doctrine of municipal ownership.

RED CROSS FACES BUSIEST WINTER SINCE WAR CLOSED

With a realization of the increased responsibilities of the American Red Cross in the last year and the knowledge that the organization is facing its busiest winter since World War days, local leaders are taking an unusually active part in the approaching membership campaign. According to Red Cross chapter officials here, the annual Roll Call will be conducted between Armistice Day and Thanksgiving, November 11-24.

J. E. Harper, who will direct the Roll Call this year in Scott County issued a statement today, emphasizing the importance of the community's support to the Red Cross during the enrollment period. The statement follows:

"This year the economic emergency lends special importance to the annual Roll Call, or membership campaign of the American Red Cross.

"The Red Cross is the recognized relief agency throughout the nation. It is chartered by Congress, headed by the President of the United States, and accorded the co-operation of the Federal government. In the unemployment crisis it has borne a great relief responsibility. It has been the authorized medium for distribution of wheat and cotton to those in need of our and clothing. Its volunteers have been unstint-

On the Way Up With Roosevelt and Garner!

The Real Forgotten Man

The plain citizen—the average citizen—in economic bondage to a handful of men of great wealth—is the real forgotten man. Two-thirds of American industry is concentrated in a few hundred corporations and actually managed by not more than five thousand human beings. More than half the savings of the country are invested in corporate stocks and bonds, and made the sport of the American stock market—as Franklin Roosevelt pointed out in his Columbus speech. The plain citizen—the average citizen—has been forgotten and ignored completely by those in power.

Protect Your Share in America!

The Shareholders in America are organized to help elect Franklin Roosevelt and John N. Garner and to restore the fundamental principles of True Democracy—to give equality of opportunity for all—the right of exploitation for none!

The issue is clear cut between Autocracy and Democracy. Which is it to be? Do you want to break the chains of economic bondage that have impoverished the people and reclaim the equity of the Forgotten Man in America? Join the Shareholders in America—send in your dollar with the coupon below. Work and vote for Franklin Roosevelt and John N. Garner!

The official Roosevelt-Garner Shareholders' Medallion—designed by Gutzon Borglum—cast in bronze—will be sent immediately to every member. It shows that you are a Shareholder in America—enlisted in a Great Cause—pledged to restore the fundamental principles of True Democracy!

Here Are Facts to Make Sikestonians Proud of Their Hub City of Southeast Mo.

The following facts were related to visitors attending a recent convention in the city by Dan G. Pepper, Superintendent of the Municipal Light and Power Company. Those who have relative and friends living out State, or in other parts of the Union, might be interested in sending a clipping. Otherwise the facts might be preserved for future reference.

The City of Sikeston has spent since 1909 more than one-fourth million dollars improving its facilities to make the town a better place to live in.

Our assessed valuation for tax purposes for 1932 amounts to $2,650,073. Our population is slightly less than 6000.

We are justly proud of our school system and its faculty. Of our high school athletic building and field. Our football games are played under floodlights at night and is the best illuminated high schoolfield in Missouri, the light intensity being 880,000 lumens or 88,000 candle power. Our "Bulldogs" aided on the side line by the "Red Peppers", school girl cheers, will next Friday night give their undivided attention to the Perryville eleven and if you want to see how a "Bulldog" can handle a ball stay over and see that game.

While in Sikeston, we ask that you visit the factory of the International Shoe Company, where annually 1,000,000 pairs of men's low and medium welt shoes are made by the five to six hundred people employed in that factory.

We also have in Sikeston a thriving wholesale grocery concerning McKnight-Keaton Grocery Company, this concern distributes in Sikeston and vicinity more than $500,000 worth of merchandise, wholesale.

We have in Sikeston two banks, both being built on firm foundations and enjoying the patronage and confidence of our people.

Our main thoroughfares are paved and our outlying streets are oiled or well kept. They are lighted by 176-250 candle power bracket type lighting units, while our business district is lighted by its whitewash, consisting of 102 400-candlepower posts.

We are proud of our new post-office, built from an appropriation of $75,000, and it is a beauty.

Our fire protection is good.

We have more than $150,000 invested in our eleven churches.

Division No. 10 Highway Department, 12 counties. New office and garage built on a lot donated by the Sikeston Chamber of Commerce. Employs straight time 190, 50 of which are in Sikeston. Bring salaries in Sikeston $7500 each month. 694 extra men employed in September at $9700. During 1931

$3,075,000 spent. Owns and maintains all equipment.

Troop E of the Highway Patrol have headquarters at the Division office in Sikeston.

The Scott County Milling Company employs a total of 253 persons, and the mechanical divisions are able to turn out a total of 1500 barrels of flour, 2000 barrels of meal, grits, corn flour and 600 tons of feed per day.

Products of the milling concern are sold in two-thirds of the 48 States.

The Company is capitalized at one and one-half million dollars, with about one million dollars paid in.

The quality of its main product, flour, is such that it is supplied regularly to some of the largest cake and specialty houses in the country. Wheat of this district is especially adapted to making a flour for fine cakes.

Reduced to tons, products of the milling company required 5-500 minimum freight cars which hauled a total of 110,000 tons of products in the period of 1931-32 from June 1 to June 1.

In Sikeston we have good hotel facilities.

The Malone Theatre, a modern up-to-date place of amusement furnishes us with shows, which are among the best.

Our Sikeston cotton gins and cotton planters move 6000 to 7-000 bales of cotton annually, which ordinarily would bring $500,000.

Cotton production has been known to be 1 1/2 to 2 bales per acre with good conditions. We have three gins.

In 1931 Sikeston built a modern electric light and power plant at a cost of more than $150,000, of which Sikestonians are proud. Our water plant is located on the same lot, with the power plant. It is making money and during its first year its net profit to the City amounted to approximately $19,000. Sikeston's only source of revenue outside of taxation comes from its water and light plants.

You are welcomed to our city, and if you find time available, it would give us pleasure to escort you through our city.

The Mayor and our citizens join in handing to you the key to our city for your enjoyment while with us.

Record Vote Is Expected

Political leaders in both camps have made preparations to get out the entire vote in Scott County, Tuesday the 8th. An intensive fight centering about the Sheriff's race in the County, and an equally bitter fight over the gubernatorial race on the State ticket will bring reluctant voters in the open.

THE EDITOR SAYS—

Are you scratching or are you taking it straight?

All of us liars can now take a good, long rest and repent of our sins.

Hoover has cut his salary 20 per cent and his Democrats aim to cut it the other 80.—Dallas News.

Most of the political lying is over and it now only remains for the votes to be counted.

Vote early and but one time and that at the polling place where you belong.

We believe if a vote was taken on whether or not you were glad the campaign was over, it would undoubtedly be unanimous.

We just wonder if Brother Jack Johnson has helped or hurt the candidate he has been talking for, or if he has helped or hurt his employers' business which furnishes him his bacon and beans.

We are told Frank Van Horne delivered an address to the voters of Sunset Addition the other night and advised them to vote the straight Republican ticket. This is different from what he is advising Democrats. He wants them to vote a split ticket. This should be passed on.

The Standard has received quite a bit of free publicity through Sikeston's second newspaper for which we are thankful. The publisher of that paper several months ago gave orders to the carrier boys not to leave a paper at The Standard office, but somehow one of his extra papers finds its way into this office. A broadminded publisher.

Please be quiet, fellow voters, while we put the question that is before the house: All those poverty has been abolished, whose garages contain two cars and in whose pot a fat hen nestles every day, will vote for Hoover; the others will vote for Roosevelt.—Paris Appeal.

We know some folks who have been out of employment for many months and are living on the charity of others, who still believe in the chicken in every pot, that will step up to the polls and vote the straight Republican ticket. It takes both confidence and guts to do this.

The political campaign just closed has been one of the most bitter and personal for many years. Why people get worked up over politics is strange, but nevertheless true. It means little to the ordinary man who is elected to office as the voter gains little or nothing and often makes enemies for life. There are just as honest and conscientious men in one political party as the other. It is the outs that want in is what starts the political pot to boiling, then fool friends add fuel to the fire until things warm up all along the line. After it is all over, we wonder why we get excited and generally feel ashamed of the part we took. But such is life in politics.

Before another issue of The Standard the country will have made its selection for President of the United States, and that fact recalls the words of James A. Garfield in his last speech to the voters in his campaign for the presidency many years ago. He said, "No matter who is elected, God is still in His heaven, and the government at Washington will still stand," and so it will today.

Germany has had five elections already this year and two more months to go. There are worse places to live than the United States when it comes to political campaigns.

Aren't you glad the political agony is about over. Many a man has jeopardized his chances of heaven by getting into a political row that led him to do things and say things that he wouldn't have been guilty of under normal conditions.

While The Standard editor is not a candidate for office, we understand Brother Jack Johnson, in a political talk at Vanduser, left the audience under the impression that we had a dozen or two Federal indictments against us. It is not stated whether they were past or present and it doesn't matter suffice to say we have never been arrested in our life, but may be at any time.

County and National Returns Via Wire Tuesday Night—I. O. O. F. Building—Free to Every Semo District Citizen

ELECTION RETURNS BY WESTERN UNION TO BE RECEIVED TUESDAY NIGHT IN I. O. O. F. BUILDING

Citizens of Sikeston and this entire community are invited to be guests of The Sikeston Standard and the Buckner-Ragsdale Store Company Tuesday night beginning about 6:30 o'clock to hear election returns which will be brought here by Western Union and broadcast through a loud speaker in the I. O. O. F. building, formerly occupied by the Dempster Furniture Company.

This newspaper has made all arrangements with Western Union to receive the returns from all parts of the United States, and through the courtesy of the Buckner-Ragsdale Store Company, the reports will be announced through a loud speaker in order that everyone attending the informal gathering might hear and keep his or her own tabulations.

Members of the Friendship Club of the Lodge will conduct a lunch stand where hot coffee, cold drinks and sandwiches or hot dogs will be served at the usual rate. The Lodge is offering the building free of charge, and whatever is made during the night by the sale of drinks and light lunches will go to the benefit of the organization.

It will be practically impossible to obtain a blackboard in Sikeston large enough to accommodate the returns in full. It is therefore suggested that visitors bring this issue of The Standard which contains much vital information about the election. A pad of paper and a pencil or two might come in handy.

According to the Election Service Bulletin issued by Western Union Congressmen will be elected in all States except Maine, where the following have already been elected: L. Carl Moran, R., California; and John G. Utterback (Dem.), Carroll L. Beedy, (Rep.), was re-elected. Election was held on September 12.

Perryville to Bring Band For Game Here Next Friday Night

Local school heads announced this morning that the Perryville football team would be accompanied by a first class brass band next Friday night, at which time the Bulldogs and the visitors will clash in the last home game on the schedule. Other Legion bands, drum and bugle corps here for the District Convention that day should pump up the game considerably. A record crowd of homefolks and visitors is anticipated.

The game is scheduled to begin at 7:30 o'clock, and the Legion program of activities has been formed to fit in perfectly. All visitors are being invited to attend the event.

Coach Mahew's team suffered an unexpected setback at the hands of New Madrid High School last Friday night. The visitors showed over a touchdown in the early part of the opening quarter, and the locals failed in several attempts to overcome the lead. Nevertheless, next Friday night will find the Bulldogs at full strength for Perryville.

Moll and Caldwell, who were sidetracked during the New Madrid game, will be in the lineup at their regular posts, and the line will be bolstered to full strength.

A full week is ahead of the Bulldogs, Coach Mahew promises, and there will be no alibis should the Perryville eleven make mince meat out of Bulldogs. The boys will put up a real scrap, although the change of a touchdown margin victory is remote against the well-drilled, experienced steam roller attack which Perryville is expected to uncoil.

Anderson Answers War Record Challenge Issued By Republican Opponent

TO THE VOTERS OF SCOTT COUNTY

My attention has just been called to an eleventh hour dodger put out by my opponent, F. W. Van Horne. This is the usual eleventh hour Republican habit of getting out misleading and false statements when it is too late for me to have my answer printed in the county papers and put in the hands of the voters.

In the first place, the alleged record put out by Van Horne is unsigned by anyone who would have this information. As a matter of fact these service records cannot be procured by anyone, including Mr. Van Horne and his political advisors, except in violation of the law, as service records are absolutely confidential and cannot be procured even upon subpoena in the trial of a lawsuit, except with the permission of the ex-service man himself. If Mr. Van Horne had been an ex-service man himself with a service record, he would have known this, but in view of the fact that he evaded service during the war while I was serving my country for over two years, his ignorance can be excused, but his tactics cannot be overlooked.

Although his dodger is full of misstatements, untruths and inaccuracies, he does at least give me credit for having enlisted when I was only eighteen years of age and within less than thirty days after the declaration of war. He also admits that I served for seven months after the Armistice was signed, or for a total period of more than twenty-five months. His statement, although misleading in many particulars, showing as it does only a portion of my injuries, admits I was disabled in the service for which I am drawing compensation. He, however, fails to refer to the fact that as a result of disabilities incurred by me during the service, I received treatment at the Base Hospital, Fort Sill, Okla., at the Edward Hines Hospital, Chicago, Illinois, United States Veterans Bureau Diagnostic Center, Cincinnati, Ohio, United States Veterans' Bureau Hospital No. 92, Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, and St. Marys Hospital, Detroit, Michigan; where the records would have disclosed the treatments I received over a long period of time because of disabilities incurred during my war service.

If I were not suffering from disabilities incurred while in the military service of this country during the World War, and had I not received an honorable discharge, I would not be entitled to draw compensation nor the bonus, which he refers to in said statement, nor would I be eligible for membership in the American Legion.

There is printed below a copy of an affidavit executed many years ago and filed with the Veterans' Bureau showing in part some of my physical disabilities, which Van Horne unfairly left out of my alleged war record when he published his statement.

I appeal to the fairness of the voters of Scott County not to be swayed, misled or influenced by this or any other false or misleading statements that may be put out by Van Horne or his supporters between now and the closing of the polls.

P. S.: While Mr. Van Horne was so busy having someone else look up my war record and telling the voters about it, I wonder why he has not informed the voters about his lack of a war record at a time when he was single, without dependents, was physically able to serve and had no excuse for not serving except lack of guts. Of course, we expect no commendation or approval of a military record from a slacker.

BURGLARS OPEN STERLING STORE SAFE SATURDAY NIGHT; GET $643 IN CHANGE, CURRENCY AND CHECKS

140TH INFANTRY ELECTS OFFICERS

Lieut. Colonel William B. Hitchcock, formerly Major first Battalion 140th Infantry, National Guard, was selected for that high post at a meeting of all officers in the organization at Caruthersville Sunday. C. O. Raine, Jr., was elected to the post of Major, 1st Battalion to succeed Hitchcock.

VAN HORNE WRECKS CAR OF DEPUTY ON HIGHWAY 61 SATURDAY

A sedan, driven by Frank Van Horne, candidate on the Republican ticket for Sheriff of Scott County, crashed into and damaged a car driven by John Lee, deputy sheriff, last Saturday night about 9 o'clock about one mile north of Morley on Highway 61. Both cars were considerably damaged.

According to Mr. Lee, who was accompanied by R. D. Clayton and Clyde Black, his party was southbound from Benton. A truck passed going north, and a few seconds later, the other car crashed into the back of his machine. The left back side of Mr. Lee's machine is damaged, while the front portion of the Van Horne auto was crumpled.

Lights of the approaching truck blinded Mr. Van Horne, he explained to Mr. Lee, adding that the wreck was his fault.

Mr. Clayton, who was riding in the back seat of the Lee car, was badly shaken up, but none of the occupants of either car was seriously hurt.

BENTON WOMAN INJURED IN AUTO WRECK SUNDAY

Miss Leona Tirmenstein, daughter of the Benton postmaster, was injured Sunday afternoon, when a car driven by Wayne Bess of this city crashed into her machine while she was attempting to turn around in front of Froese's Cafe in the County Seat town.

Bess was driving north enroute to Potosi when he struck the Tirmenstein machine.

Mr. Bess escaped serious injury and returned to Sikeston with Elmer Montgomery, although his car was damaged to the extent of about $200. Miss Tirmenstein received treatment for an injured knee, and was removed to her home.

MADRID DEMOCRATS STAGE COUNTY-WIDE PARADE SATURDAY

New Madrid County political leaders, and candidates on the Democratic ticket staged a county-wide parade last Saturday leaving New Madrid about 9 o'clock and visiting each major precinct in the area. Approximately 30 cars formed the parade as entered Matthews, to be joined there by others making a total of 50 before reaching Morehouse. J. C. McDowell, Dick Baynes and J. V. Conran were principal speakers.

THREE MARSTON BOYS IN JAIL OVER THEFT OF GUNS FROM MARSTON ARMY

Three young men all of Marston face prison sentences in Federal Court because they removed government property from their home town National Guard Armory last January 17. Their haul consisted of three Army .45 automatics, 4 extra magazines, and 3 boxes of shells. They were caught Saturday, November 5 by Capt. A. D. Sheppard and Trooper Dace, co-operating with a federal agent.

The three youngsters gave their names as Marvin J. Simmons, 19, the "hard guy" of the lot, James W. Pugh, 17, and Jesse Oliver, 17, all of Marston. Pugh was picked up in Portageville, while the other boys were arrested at home.

Pugh traded the Army .45 to a Sikeston young man for a .22 caliber pistol. This gun was observed by Toots Nall, who informed Brown Jewell, Constable, who in turn informed the young man in question. He voluntarily turned the gun over to H. Daniels, a National Guard officer, and the latter placed the matter before Capt. Sheppard.

The register number had been filed from the gun, but the numbers were restored by some process best known to experts, and the property was finally traced thru the National Supply Department as having been stolen January 12, 1932 from the Marston Armory. Pugh's arrest followed.

All three have confessed, and will be turned over to Federal Court for trial and sentence.

Burglars gained entrance to the Sterling Store office here sometime late Saturday night or Sunday morning, and made a clean getaway with approximately $420 in currency. A sack containing $83 in small change, nickels, dimes, quarters and half dollars was recovered by searchers, who also found discarded checks amounting to nearly $140. Thus far, all leads in the case have turned out to be false, although officers are still hopeful of finding some clue to the identity of the visitors.

A. J. Slayton, Sterling Store manager, did not discover the theft until Sunday afternoon about 1:45, when he entered the place to check up on a few minor matters. He found the office safe door open, and the knob turned to the last number of the correct combination. Further investigation disclosed that the burglars had gained entrance through the Army, which has an upstairs connecting door with the Sterling warehouse. A door panel had been removed thru which the burglar entered the room, and then descended a flight of steps entering the office. One lone barefoot print in the oiled floor of the warehouse was left as a possible clue.

Deputy Constable Toots Nall immediately notified Capt. A. D. Sheppard of the State Highway patrol, and organized a searching party, which included Troopers, Nall and a Standard representative.

The money, Mr. Slayton explained, represented most of Saturday's sales, cash register change, and about $65 held over for the payment of petty accounts. It had been placed in 18 money bags and deposited in the safe about 11:15 o'clock Saturday night. He was positive the combination on the safe was turned.

The first find proved to be a flashlight, a screw driver, and one money bag carelessly shoved under the orchestra rostrum in the Armory. From this vantage point, the burglars could command

Scott County Democrats Stage Countywide Parade Monday; To Have Rally

Between 35 and 50 cars carrying Democratic County political candidates and backers passed through Sikeston about 10:30 o'clock Monday morning, picking up a dozen or more cars here on their proposed County-wide parade and speaking tour the day preceding the General Election.

Several comic floats, bells, noise makers, etc., were noted in the parade which was scheduled to assemble with other Democrats Monday night at the Court House to hear an address by the Hon. Langdon Jones of Kennett.

Cape Girardeau Bank Closed By Its Directors

Cape Girardeau, November 7.—The Sturdivant Bank failed to open for business today. A notice, posted on the door of the banking room in the H-H Building, said that it had been placed in the hands of the State banking department.

The Board of Directors, meeting late Sunday, decided to close the bank because of "frozen loans." It was explained these loans are ones which under normal conditions are good, but which because of depressed conditions cannot be immediately collected.

C. M. Duncan, an examiner of the State banking department, was sent here immediately to take charge.

Statement of Bank
A statement at the close of business Saturday night showed deposits of $942,000, this including $245,000 in public funds, money not held by local people. From the standpoint of deposits the bank was the smallest of the three in the city. Bills payable, the other liability of consequence, total $225,000.

Assets of the bank include $1,265,000 in loans and bonds and $43,000 in cash and in banks. A technical liability is a capital and surplus of $230,000, which, however, in the event of liquidation would be used in the payment of depositors.

As described in a statement issued by the board of directors the bank is the direct victim of "patriotic" moves three times in the past in which its directors stepped in and saved the city from a bank failure. Loans granted and taken from these banks, much of it on real estate now with a depreciated value, constituted the big handicap in continuing operation.

Matter of Loans
It was stated that the success of liquidation in behalf of the depositors will depend upon the liquidation of the loans.

A condensed statement at the close of business Saturday night follows:

Liabilities
Capital, surplus	$230,000
Savings deposits	183,000
Time deposits	183,000
Checking deposits	325,000
Public funds	245,000
Bills payable	225,000

Assets
Cash and in banks	$43,000
Loans and bonds	1,265,000
The following statement, signed by C. M. Duncan, examiner in charge, was posted on the bank door this morning:
"Notice is hereby given this bank is closed and in the hands of the Department of Finance of Missouri!"

Other Banks Open

Cape Girardeau's two other banks, the First National and the Farmers' & Merchants', opened for business as usual at 9 o'clock this morning and among the first to enter one bank was a merchant with a deposit of $4000, representing Saturday's business receipts.

The Sturdivant Bank was the oldest bank in Southeast Missouri, having been established in 1866 by Col. Robert Sturdivant. Until three years ago it was located on Main Street.

Officers of the bank were: President, Clyde A. Vandivort; vice presidents, John Tape and A. Q. Carter; cashier, Martin G. Bender. Charles L. Harrison was chairman of the Board of Directors and other members were L. C. Blattner, George W. Cross, Arthur W. Harrison, Harry I. Himmelberger, W. J. Kier, R. E. L. Lamkin, John Tape and C. A. Vandivort.—Cape Missourian.

Unaccustomed As I Am

Sikeston at last has an athletic pavilion or what not, the boys will go through their paces in strange holds, running bowlines and etc. in this wonderful monument to some particular organization.

Big Prairie Township in New Madrid County is the first instance of public dependants going for politics in such a big way. The other night at a church function that consisted of a box supper and Republican rally, two constituents of the G. O. P., one who has for a number of years begged his fare from the Good Folk, and the other who is in a slightly better condition, defamed the community of Matthews, their home, and a gentleman seeking the office of Constable—both forgetting that he had befriended them.

In one instance the Constable candidate on the Democratic ticket, carried food to the family of one who was detained for a spell in the county jail on a liquor charge; then he threw all the influence he could to get him out of jail. The other he saved from having his property, a small amount indeed, taken in payment for unpaid merchandise—and this is the way public dependants appreciate the help they receive.

Machines! Machines! I'm so damned tired of hearing Machines! Pendergast is talked on from daylight until dark and finally the Democrats hit on the idea of pouring it back to the G. O. P. in a speech regarding Artie Hyde, Clements and Caulfield.

It seems to me that the taxpayer has but little to thank the St. Louis Republican machine for.

Not many of the people realize that the Democratic party is an outgrowth of Thomas Jefferson in revolution against the Centralization of Government idea of Hamilton's. This centralization would undoubtedly mean having the democracy of the United States of America soon falling in line with the monarchial ideas of Europe. Hamilton is the "Father of the Republican Party". Jefferson of the Democratic Party. It was Jefferson's chief aim to keep the "Forgotten Man" in the regulation of his government, but the poor devil himself is the guy that cuts his own throat.

MOST WATER PLANTS IN U. S. CITY-OWNED

Kansas City, Mo., November 3. —A survey of water supply systems in the United States recently completed by Burns & McDonnell Engineering Co. of Kansas City that 7853 are municipally owned shows there are 10,789 plants and and 2936 privately owned. Those publicly owned are 72.8 per cent of the total.

Results of the survey, published in a booklet, also include comparisons of water rates and services in more than 250 cities. It was found that in 225 cities with municipal plants the average cost of 500 gallons of water a month was $1.41. In 25 cities supplied by privately owned systems the average cost was found to be $2.24 for the same service.

The growth of public ownership was shown by comparative figures, the municipally owned plants having been only 42.9 per cent of the total in 1896. The largest twenty cities own their waterworks. Among the 94 cities of more than 100,000 population, there are only 11 in which the water systems are privately owned.

The survey includes a compilation of revenues, expenses and net profits of 100 municipal plants serving a population of 9,077,724. The total revenue was $51,979,168, expenses were $22,696,804 and depreciation was $17,572,593, leaving net profits of $11,610,498.

Do You Want Lower Taxes?

The biggest State issue in Missouri today is that of reduced taxes, for our present tax burdens have become unbearable, and this applies to farmers and townspeople alike. To this end, in the coming November election voters should vote "YES" on Constitutional amendments Nos. 2 and 3, and for the following reasons: Amendment No. 2 provides for a more economical conduct of our State Legislature, limiting each branch to not over 75 employees, whereas past Legislatures have frequently employed as many as 800 or 900, and thus the adoption of this amendment will put a stop to our clerkship scandals which are of long standing, and for which both parties have been about equally responsible. Amendment No. 3 provides for an executive budget under the control of the Governor, and requires him to submit estimates to the Legislature of the actual needs of the various State departments (instead of leaving it to the department heads) and gives him the power to reduce any appropriation (except for the public schools) if in his opinion it is too high. The last Legislature appropriated $6,000,000 above the anticipated revenue.

The above amendments, which in times to come will save our taxpayers millions of dollars, were proposed by the Committee on Taxation and Governmental Reform which is composed of five veteran Democratic and five veteran Republican members of the Legislature, and they have the unqualified endorsement not only of Missouri's leading farm organization and the Associated Industries, and the League of Women Voters, but they have likewise been unreservedly endorsed by our State Democratic and Republican platforms and the County Court Judges Association, and therefore they should be overwhelmingly adopted in the coming November election. Because they do not understand them, many voters have formed the habit of voting "NO" on all Constitutional amendments. Amendments Nos. 2 and 3 have been especially prepared to reduce taxes, and to expedite the passage of legislation, and therefore, every individual who

RED is the Christmas color, and one of the most beautiful of the palette is "tomato red". Eleven your holiday menus with plentiful dashes of this gay shade about which artists and decorators are doing as much talking today as are health and home economics writers about the "newly discovered" health-giving qualities of the tomato.

A Bit of History

It was they are not so newly discovered after all. While for many years European and North American mothers were saying "Children, keep your hands off that naughty vegetable — it's pretty, I know, but it's poisonous!", other countries seem to have had a better opinion of it. The Aztecs had discovered that it was healthy to eat tomatoes, and Indians of Central America baked it and found it good for sore throats. It has even been suggested that the vegetable was named after Saint Thomas who, it is claimed, taught in Mexico and urged the Mexicans to cultivate it and drink tomato juice.

Be all this as it may—those who are best informed today urge us to eat more tomatoes. The United States Bureau of Home Economics recommends them in the diet at all times, fresh or canned, as the best single food for supplying four of the most important vitamins, as a preventive of a number of diseases, and as an important article of nutrition. Canned tomatoes are especially recommended for economy menus, because of the low prices prevailing today, though show-ages indicate that prices will soon be higher.

is interested in reducing taxes should vote "YES" by scratching "NO" on these two amendments.

When people have to pick cotton at 50c per hundred it means that both the parents and the children have to work all through the nice fall weather for the bare necessities of life, and then when the weather becomes bad the Red Cross will have to function. (Read the fourth verse of the 5th chapter of St. James). We have too much cotton, not enough clothes; too much grain, not enough bread; too much livestock, not enough meat, etc. People in want in a land of plenty doesn't sound right. It isn't right. Political salves and panaceas will never heal our wounds. Through a period of prosperity we all became selfish. It was "everybody for himself and the devil for his hindmost". Now the most of us are the hindmost and don't we holler. We've had our dance and now we have to pay the fiddler. If you don't like to see the country going to the devil why don't you turn your face to God?—C. U. Somore in Scott County Democrat.

Farley Predicts Sweeping Victory For Roosevelt

National Chairman Says He Won't Concede a Single State

A deluge of ballots on November eighth, that will elect Franklin D. Roosevelt president by the largest majority ever given a candidate for public office, is the claim of James A. Farley, chairman of the Democratic National Campaign committee. Predicting a plurality for Roosevelt of close to ten million votes, Mr. Farley declared that the American people were in no mood to continue the present Republican administration another four years. "They are tired of promises," he said, "they are tired of temporizing; they are tired of lamentations; and their verdict is going to be rendered on November eighth. "I appeal to the loyal Democratic workers and other friends of Governor Roosevelt throughout the country to take renewed enthusiasm from this indication of a magnificent victory, and to join with us in making it a clean sweep for the Roosevelt-Garner ticket, a sweep that will place every single State into the Democratic column. It is possible, and with a continuation of the loyal and conscientious effort of our friends, it is a goal that will be achieved. "Now I have gone on record several times in the press of the country on this election, and I have repeated several times the statement that I made quite early in the campaign. I repeat it now: I am not prepared to concede a single State to the opposition, and when the ballots are counted on November eighth, I am quite sure that the result will show what I have always contended was possible—a clean sweep for Franklin D. Roosevelt and John N. Garner."

ROOSEVELT ASSAILS REPUBLICAN LEADERS

Our fight is against the mill boys of splendid American men and women, who up to this time have led themselves Republican.

Our fight is against a Republican leadership which has shown itself to be not only inept, but absolutely destructive of the prosperity of America.—Franklin Roosevelt.

Number Percentage of Votes of Votes

Roosevelt	1,715,789	55.99
Hoover	1,150,398	37.53
Norman Thomas	148,079	4.84

The President showed a slight gain from the 37.33 per cent of the total vote he had in the semi-final returns.

The final vote gives Hoover a lead in the seven States of Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut and New Jersey. Roosevelt leads in all of the other forty-one.

A division of the vote by an electoral college apportionment would give Roosevelt 474 votes to Hoover's 57.

In an analysis of how the same voters voted in 1928, Roosevelt is shown obtaining 37.19 per cent of his strength from former Republicans and 47.95 per cent from Democrats of four years ago. Hoover is shown obtaining 80.57 per cent of his strength from those who voted for him at the last quadrennial election and 6.15 per cent from Democratic voters of that year.

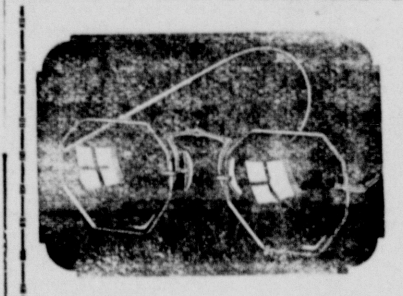

Roosevelt is indicated having a clear majority in thirty-nine States over all six presidential candidates represented in the poll.

GOVERNOR ROOSEVELT WINS DIGEST POLL GETS 41 STATES

New York, November 4.—The final count in the Literary Digest's presidential straw vote today showed Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt holding a leading of approximately 3 to 2 over President Hoover in forty-one States.

The final vote in Missouri follows: Roosevelt ..... 70,882 Hoover ..... 39,071

A grand total of 3,064,497 ballots were returned and tabulated. They were divided among the three leading candidates as follows:

JOE ANDERSON, DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR SHERIFF IS WELL LIKED IN HOME TOWN

A few of the blood and thunder orators for the opposition party are belaboring the rest of Scott County voters with alleged "facts" seeking to establish the point that Joe Anderson is not respected in his home community Blodgett. Most of the allegations are based upon the statements of some principle achievement in life thus far has been to get into trouble.

Sikeston and Scott County Democrats and friends of Joe Anderson might recall that Blodgett went almost solid for Anderson in the primary. But should that not be sufficient, the following letters from leading citizens of Blodgett might be used to good advantage.

G. W. Buchanan, president of the Blodgett Bank, says:

"This is to certify that I have known Joe Anderson most all of his life and have never known him to be a gangster or a drunkard, and the stories that are being told about him we believe to be untrue. As to his honesty and taking care of his obligations, we have always found him first class."

J. T. Nunnelee, president of the Blodgett Mercantile Co., says:

"Regarding Mr. Joe Anderson, who is a candidate for Sheriff, will state that Mr. Anderson in my opinion, will do his duty when elected. Mr. Anderson has been dealing with the writer several years and wish to state that he has always done just exactly what he promised therefore, when he becomes our next Sheriff, he will be just the same Joe and will carry out his promises to the letter."

P. M. Withrow, owner of a general store says:

"This is to certify I have known Joe Anderson for a number of years and I have always found him a man (undiscovered) of good morals and a friend to the needy. Joe is worthy for the office of Sheriff. We're for him One Hundred Per Cent here at Blodgett."

W. W. Lemons, grain dealer, says: "He is absolutely a man of his word—he is a man of good character, honest, straight and upright."

R. N. Minner says: "His word is as good as his bond". The original copies of these letters may be seen in The Jimplie window at Illmo.

Wouldn't it be showing good common sense to believe these men who know Joe Anderson, rather than listen to a lot of bunk handed out by people who are paid?

The campaign in Sikeston has taken a fresh turn over the week-end. The boys in the other camp are busily engaged in a desperate attempt to discredit Anderson's 25-month service record in the World War in order to regain lost ground for "Cinderella". Such active workers as "Chief Deputy Dutch" Heisler (who served his country with a baseball bat and not in uniform) plus Frank Van Horne, who suddenly discovered a childhood injury to dodge the draft, were busy Friday and Saturday, pulling coat tails and whispering vital information about Anderson's record.

And so a hectic campaign closes. Joe Anderson has promised to keep Scott County clean, and to enforce the law to the best of his ability. We believe that his past record will bear him out as a man of his word. Furthermore, he is not afraid of man or devil.

The opposition has concocted many tales, and has woven a halo of goodie goodie about its candidate. He is a splendid man, a Christian gentleman, and we hold no grudge against him. We do wish to point out emphatically, however, that he is running on a Republican ticket against a man on the Democratic ticket, who measures up to every qualification of a MAN. Everything being equal, why should any Democrat scratch his ballot, and by so much weaken his party?

LAST RITES SATURDAY AT MORLEY FOR AUTO VICTIM 5 YEARS OLD

Morley, November 6.—James Lewis Dyer, age 5 years, 9 months and 1 day, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Poe Dyer of Chicago, was run down by an automobile Sunday, October 30 and died Tuesday, November 1 in that city. The remains were brought to Farnfelt Friday to the home of Homer Dyer and funeral services were held Saturday at the Morley Baptist church with Rev. R. E. McElmurry of Farnfelt in charge.

The family formerly lived here in Morley.

The parents, three brothers and two sisters survive. Among the out-of-town relatives attending the services were Mrs. Fred Johnson of Bell City, his grandmother; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dyer and daughter of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dyer and family of Farnfelt and Mrs. Arthur Eachus and children of Benton.

THE IN-BETWEEN SEASON

THERE is a period of from a month to six weeks in May and June when the supply of fresh vegetables from the South has been exhausted and the home-grown truck garden vegetables from the North have not yet begun to find their way into the markets.

Asparagus, for instance is just beginning to appear, but the price is so high that it might as well be replying in its earthy bed so far as the household of average means is concerned—which is no body's loss, as canned asparagus is concededly better and surprisingly inexpensive. It is impossible to get fresh peas in the northern states until after the middle of June, but this, too, is little to be regretted since canned peas, including the delicious vacuum-packed varieties, are a food with which not even a Brillat-Savarin could find fault.

Anticipate the Shortage

In anticipation of this period of shortage of fresh vegetables the housewife will do well to stock the shelves of her pantry with plenty of canned tomatoes, corn, stringless beans and lima beans, peas, carrots, beets, asparagus, spinach, Brussels sprouts, squash and turnip. And while she is about it she might as well add some artichoke hearts and mushrooms for Sundays and holidays.

It is often possible to save quite a bit by buying canned vegetables by the dozen or in the specially priced assortments which many shops are now offering. This simplifies the family budgeting because it is thus possible to tell in advance just what must be allowed for vegetables, whereas the prices of fresh vegetables vary.

Save Time and Toil

But the saving of dollars and cents is not all. By using canned vegetables the housewife is relieved from such fatigues. Peeling, paring, cutting and culling are eliminated, and the time thus saved may be devoted to preparing more interesting dishes or it can be given over to other pursuits.

It may even be possible to accomplish both ends. For the housewife who wishes to eat her cake and have it too, we have arranged a collection of recipes especially designed for canned vegetables which make the most delicious dishes and which can be whisked up in such short order that there will still be plenty of time for shopping, calls, bridge, or delightful afternoon strolls in sun-dappled city streets or country lanes.

Here are the Recipes

Asparagus Salad with Cheese Carrots: Drain and chill one can asparagus tips, arrange in nests of shredded lettuce. Pour over French dressing made with lemon juice instead of vinegar and to which some finely minced pimiento has been added. Shape into tiny carrots one jar pimiento cheese, dust with paprika and insert sprig of parsley for carrot top. Use one or two for garnish of each salad. Serves eight.

Spinach and Bacon au Gratin: Dice two slices of bacon and fry brown. Add one No. 2½ can spinach, well drained, one teaspoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper, a few grains nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoon paprika, one-half teaspoon chopped onion and one beaten egg yolk, and pile in buttered baking dish. Cover with buttered crumbs, and sprinkle over top one tablespoon grated Parmesan cheese. Bake in hot oven, 400°, till brown—fifteen to twenty minutes. Serves four to six.

Vegetable Curry: Sauté in two tablespoons butter one medium onion, sliced, and one medium apple, chopped, until brown. Add one and one-fourth teaspoons curry powder, one teaspoon salt, one-fourth teaspoon paprika, and one cup boiling water, and cook a minute. Then add one-half can red kidney beans, one 8-ounce can diced carrots, one 8-ounce can diced turnips, one cup cooked diced potatoes and one 8-ounce can stringless beans, and simmer for ten minutes. Serve with cold sliced meat or with hot rice as main dish. Serves eight to ten.

Tomato and Onion Soup: Put in skillet three tablespoons butter, one cup thinly sliced onions and one teaspoon sugar, and sauté in pale yellow. Add two cups water and boil till onions are tender. Press through sieve one No. 3 can tomatoes and add to onions with one bouillon cube, salt and pepper. Boil for a minute and serve. Serves six.

BULLDOGS BOW TO MADRID ELEVEN ON HOME FIELD

Last week-end marked the defeat, either actual or moral, of so-called "favorite" football eleven in the district. Notable of course, is the overwhelming defeat of Poplar Bluff at the hands of the Cape Central Tigers who amassed a total of 42 points and blanked the Mules. Charleston's Bluejay outfit struggled to a scoreless tie against Jackson, and the Bulldogs humbly bowed to an inspired, scrapping New Madrid team to the tune of 7 to 0.

It is true that the same Sikeston eleven that turned the Bluff Mules' invasion into a rout, was not on the field Friday night.

The team was revamped in order to obtain a working eleven, but the summary statistics give the visitors a clean victory, nevertheless. The locals were clearly outplayed in every department of the game, and only on one occasion did they offer a serious threat.

New Madrid shoved over its counter early in the first quarter starting the drive from the Sikeston 31-yard line. Brown and Riley alternated with telling effect through the line, ripping off yardage and first downs. A pass good for 5 yards gave the visitors their second first down in succession. Brown was caught holding, and the rush was temporarily halted by a 15-yard penalty. Riley, however, ducked his head and reeled off 17 yards on a spinner through center, making up the penalty, and adding two yards for good measure.

The flashy fullback netted five more yards on the next play taking the ball to the Bulldogs' 9-yard line. The Sikeston line stiffened and threw Brown for a 1-yard loss on the next play. Riley added one yard, and on the fourth down a pass from Riley was good on the Sikeston two-foot line. Cravens pushed over for the one and only touchdown. It was plenty, however, because the visitors played headsup football during the rest of the game, and held the locals scoreless. Riley's kick for extra point was perfect, and the score read 7 to 0 in favor of New Madrid.

After the kickoff to Sikeston following the counter, Young gained 4 yards on the first play, and attempted a pass which was knocked down by Harris. Young made 5 yards at center, and then punted to the New Madrid 28-yard line. Riley carried the ball one yard as the quarter ended.

Sikeston suffered a number of heartbreaking setbacks in the game, and one of the lot came in the second play of the second quarter when a New Madrid punt was blocked, only to have the play recalled for a Bulldog offside penalty of 5 yards. Riley made his second attempt good, and the Bulldogs took the ball on their own 41-yard line. Jackson reeled off 20 yards at center and it seemed as though the long-delayed Sikeston push was about to begin. The attempt was promptly smothered, however, when three line plays netted only 4 yards, and the Bulldogs were forced to kick. Neither side offered a scoring threat during the remainder of the quarter which ended with New Madrid holding the ball on the Bulldog's 43-yard line. The gun barked just as the visitors started another play.

Brown called for a pass, but the attempt failed.

Bulldog Drive Fails
 Sikeston backers had their hopes raised in the third quarter when a sustained drive carried the ball deep into New Madrid territory, but that push was destined to flop also. An exchange of punts gave the ball to Sikeston on their own 43-yard line. Jackson and Young alternated, ripping off right tackle for gains of 3 to 5 yards, giving the locals three first downs in succession. The quarter ended with the Bulldogs in possession on the Madrid 25-yard line and a touchdown in sight.

A fuse snapped in the lighting circuit on the south side of the field, causing a temporary delay in the game.

The trouble was corrected however, and the Bulldogs settled down to business. Moll was sent in for Carroll as the quarter opened. Jackson hit center for 2 yards. Moll added three at left tackle, and Young made one carrying the ball to the New Madrid 19-yard line, fourth down and four to go. Young faded back for a long pass, but Jackson and Conley collided at the goal line just as the former was about to take the ball, and the attempt was marked down as another incomplete heave.

Brown crossed up the Sikeston defense on the next play by sending Riley around left end for 16 yards from punt formation. The secondary had to drag the shifty back to the ground. That ended the New Madrid threats for the evening.

A final march down the field for the locals was halted in the closing minutes of the final quarter.

Riley had punted out of bounds on the Sikeston 35-yard line, with the game just about over. About two minutes remained to play. Young skirted right end for 5 yards, a pass failed, but Moll made it first down on the Sikeston 48-yard marker. Moll added 3, and Young got away for 16 yards. The play was recalled, however, and the locals penalized 15 yards for holding. Another pass failed, and the locals kicked to the New Madrid 41-yard line. Two line plays netted no yardage, and Riley punted to the Sikeston 28-yard line as the game ended.

Summary: First downs for Sikeston 5, New Madrid 7. Yards gained from scrimmage, Sikeston 94, New Madrid 101. Yards lost in scrimmage Sikeston 10, New Madrid 7. Passes, Sikeston attempted six, five were incomplete, and one was intercepted. For New Madrid, 3 attempts, 2 completed for 13 yards, 1 incomplete.

The Bulldogs will have their full strength in the field against Perryville here next Friday night, at which time hundreds of visitors and delegates to the American Legion Convention are expected to be present. Perryville has an undefeated eleven in the field, and one of the smoothest working machines of any high school in the country.

Judging from their past record the Bulldogs should be able to put up a game fight. Thus far,

THANKSGIVING PRAYER

I thank Thee, Lord, that every day
 Thou sendest men across my way
 Who need my help, my heart, my hand!
 I pray that I may understand
 Thy will and purpose every hour,
 That by the richness of Thy power,
 Vouchsafed to me, Thy will be done—
 And if perchance some soul is won
 By Thee, through me, to higher thought;
 Or hath the brighter vision caught,
 'Twill be my greatest happiness!
 I thank Thee, if some soul's distress
 By Thee, through me, hath been assuaged;
 Or if, where passion's tumult raged,
 I spoke Thy word and calmed the storm!
 Take Thou my life as clay, and form
 Its lines as Thou desirest; then,
 If I reflect Thy thought, all men
 Shall better be, who come my way!
 Each day shall be Thanksgiving day!

Hackensmith-Morris Match Booked For November 11th On Winner Take All Basis

A first class mat card is being arranged for the entertainment of Armistice Day Legionnaires and visitors here, according to members of the program committee.

The boys will feature a tussle between Wild Irish Jimmie Morris of Memphis, weight 195 pounds, and Young Hackensmith, 195-pound local contender. The two heavies have met before in one of the roughest and toughest matches ever staged in the South. It resulted in a dual disqualification by the Memphis Commission, and disbarment for Morris from the State for one year.

Morris is not exactly a "dirty" fighter, but he does invent rules of his own during a match. Those who follow the mat game closely here, claim that Hack will have his hands full to dispose of Morris within the time limit of two hours.

Wade Tucker, local wrestling king, has advanced the opinion that Hack in previous matches near here, including his first appearance two weeks ago under Legion auspices, has merely experienced a light workout. When asked why he did not sign up a match with Hackensmith, Tucker advanced two reasons, one that a three-year absence from the mat game had done little to toughen him for a match, and the second that Hack was one of the fastest boys on the semi-pro list.

Morris is confident he can handle the local product. In fact, he is willing to wrestle for nothing should he fail to win the Armistice Day match. If he should win, however, Hack would have nothing for his trouble, but the experience. It is to be a match in which winner takes all.

The other match on the double bill will find Joe Kelly of Mississippi and the best offering of the district in the ring. Kelly is now training here under the expert eye of Hack and expects to remain in Sikeston during the winter.

The matches will be held beginning about 4 o'clock in the I. O. O. F. Building.

A blocked punt in the opening minutes of the Doniphan-Matthews tilt at Matthews Friday afternoon was largely responsible for a 7 to 0 victory for Doniphan. The unfortunate fumble occurred on the home team's 8-yard line, from which point the Doniphan gridders scored on two line plays. During the remainder of the game the teams battled on fairly even terms.

The Red Devils meeting a strong Puxico eleven on the Chaffee field Friday night, held their opponents to a scoreless draw. Chaffee failed to break past the 20-yard strip.

Phil Baxter, who is known as the composer of several popular numbers, and as a famous orchestra director, is bringing his band to Sikeston on November 14 for an engagement through arrangements made with Music Corporation of America.

Baxter, who comes from a musical family, played his first professional engagement at the age of fourteen when he dropped out one tune on a third rate piano in a noisy skating rink. During his whole eventful and successful career he never learned to read a written note of music, but Phil is unusually sensitive to rhythm and harmony.

While in service during the war, he played the piano, dealing mostly in harmony chords. Paul White-man played the fiddle to his accompaniment, and the two made it their duty to entertain sick sailors and marines at a hospital on Mare Island, Calif. Rudy Weidoff, of saxophone renown, was the marine bandmaster. From Whiteman and Weidoff young Baxter learned a great deal about music that interested him; his association with them was more instructive than any amount of printed matter and a metronome would have been.

After the war ended, Phil joined an orchestra as pianist and later organized his own band. Baxter and his orchestra have played many notable engagements including Torreon Ballroom, Kansas City New Coliseum, Tulsa; Steel Pier, Atlantic City; Rice Hotel, Houston, and Coney Island, Cincinnati.

Phil has also won national fame as the writer of popular songs, among which "Piccolo Pete", "Harmonica Harry", "One Man Band", and "Blame it on the Moon" are best sellers.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED

The Union National Bank has been robbed and the watchman killed. Matt Brown, assistant cashier, has been held for the crime. He refuses to furnish an alibi. Dickson, president of the bank, insists that he is shielding somebody. A man starts on the bank and it appears that they will have to close their doors. Just as the police are taking Matt away, Helen, Mrs. Dickson's secretary, who is in love with Brown, tells the inspector that Cluett visited Finlay that morning. The inspector tells the man to call on Cluett's office in five minutes and to bring "Mother Machee".

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

For five minutes the inspector stalled and Cluett hedged. Then the phone rang. Kelly sang "Mother Machee," to which the inspector replied. "Dude Finlay, huh? Where you got him? What? You don't mean Cyril Cluett, the cashier? Yes. Why did Dude Finlay tell you that? Yeah, I got him right here now. O. K., Kelly, good work. Looks like A—." He broke off suddenly. Cluett made a bolt. "Get him, boys." It took but a moment to bring the cashier back. The inspector called Dickson in. "You're right, Dickson, Brown didn't have a thing to do with it; here's your man." Dickson stared in amazement. "Why, you must be crazy. Why, I've known this man for years." "He's confessed. He's mixed up with the toughest gangsters in town." Dickson could not believe his ears. "Good heavens, man, what's got into you?" Cluett whined. "I don't know. It's all been like a crazy nightmare. Mr. Dickson, I gambled, owed a lot of money and last week I lost $50,000. But I didn't kill that man last night. Yesterday they came over to collect it. I begged them to wait. I wanted time to think, but they wouldn't listen to me. They said they'd kill me if I didn't pay. I was desperate. I didn't know what to do. Then they suggested that I help them rob the bank. All I had to do was turn off the alarm and fix the time clock. It sounded so easy."

"What were you doing at Finlay's this morning?" the inspector inquired.

"They took my keys and I went there to get them back. I had nothing to do with killing the man. I was in my apartment last night. I swear it."

"Claims he was there with a married woman, but won't mention her name," the inspector explained.

"He won't believe it, Mr. Dickson, but it's the truth. I was in my apartment last night. It's the truth. Ask your wife—she..."

"My wife! What's she got to do with it?"

"Well, she just came up for a drink. Just a few minutes." As Cluett finished Dickson picked up the phone and called his wife. She was evasive, but he finally got the truth from her.

"She wasn't to blame, Mr. Dickson. It wasn't her fault. Honest it wasn't," Cluett pleaded. But Dickson paid no heed. He was stunned, shocked. His mind went blank. The bank depositors, everything was forgotten. When Clark offered to buy him out at $50 a share, Dickson told him to go ahead and draw up the agreement. When Helen asked him if he wanted the rest of the phone calls made, he looked at her blankly and said no.

When Helen reported to Matt, he went in to see if he could help Dickson to get a grip on himself.

"Were you at Cluett's apartment last night?" Dickson inquired.

"I can explain later. You're losing your bank; don't you realize what that means?"

The man paid no attention. "Was Mrs. Dickson there?"

"Listen, Dickson. Don't let them lick you. Just because a couple of big shots turned you down; you've got more friends than anybody in this town. Little guys, guys who wouldn't be in business if it weren't for you. Why, all you've got to do is—"

Dickson interrupted him. "Wait a minute. Answer my question. Was Mrs. Dickson there?"

"Why—why?" Matt stammered.

"She was, wasn't she?" Matt nodded. "How long has this been going on? Do you know?"

"I don't know what you're talking about. All I know is that you're losing the bank."

"All right. That's all—please, Matt," Dickson indicated that he festival took place, was long and brilliant with colors from the lighted Jack o' lanterns casting a mystic glow. The corn fodder and pumpkins which were placed in bundles in isolated places, gave emphasis to the harvest note. In odd arrangements were limbs bearing the marvelous array of autumn glory, thus creating the desired typical October scene. Witches, goblins, spirits, skeletons, blackcats, and weird owls predominated in the decorations. Mysterious forms began gliding in from nowhere, it seemed, and their ghost like appearance awakened the people to a shout of laughter. Ghosts, witches, negroes, old hobbling, ladies, clowns and others in deceptive robes prevailed everywhere.

The girls' and boys' Glee Club, directed by Mrs. Finney, rendered a number of beautiful selections. Other members of the high school students, acted a number of short plays. A Halloween parade, representing the different masked characters proved to be very comical. Bill Allen won the prize for being the most cleverly masked.

Interesting games, furnished entertainment until the popularity contest began. A close race was run between a Freshman and a Senior—Gladys Ward and Camille Emerson. The latter winning by a few votes.

(Floyd C. Shoemaker)
William Jewell College at Liberty, Mo., came into existence as a result of the desire of the Missouri Baptist General Association to establish an institution of general higher education and to train students for the ministry. The location of the college, its naming, and its beginning history are closely identified with Col. Alexander W. Doniphan, who was not a Baptist but whose name is indelibly written into the history of Missouri.

It was on November 12, 1849, eighty-three years ago this week, that the college board of trustees first met at Liberty. Roland Hughes of Howard County was elected president of the Board and William C. Ligon, secretary. Steps were taken then toward the opening of the College in the old Liberty Academy on January 1, 1850.

Efforts by the Baptist to found a college had been started in the 1830's but nothing definite was accomplished until 1843, when Dr. William Jewell of Columbia, offered $10,000 toward the founding of a college. Dr. Jewell's offer was not accepted then, but on February 27, 1849, Governor King approved an act of the General Assembly, chartering a proposed institution of the Baptists.

A convention of subscribers to the new college was called to assemble at Booneville on August 21, 1849. In the meantime, strenuous efforts had been made in Clay County to obtain the location of the college. Col. Doniphan, who had but recently returned from service in the Mexican war at the head of the famous Doniphan Expedition, was induced to speak throughout the county in an effort to raise enough subscriptions to win the new college for Clay County. But the counties of Marion, Callaway, Boone, Howard and Cooper also were working actively for the location of the college.

The Booneville meeting was called to order by Wade M. Jackson; William Carson was chosen president, with E. B. Cone as secretary. The Rev. J. M. Peck, then of Illinois, but a veteran Baptist minister of Missouri, offered the prayer. It was then that Col. Doniphan nominated Liberty as the site for the college. Callaway, Marion and Cooper County delegates also offered sites in their counties. Just before the balloting, according to Dr. L. M. Lawson, who has written on the founding of William Jewell College, Dr. Jewell offered to the convention $10,000 in lands for the benefit of the proposed college, provided the donor might cast a corresponding number of votes for the location. After strenuous objections from Col. Doniphan and others, the offer of Dr. Jewell was declined.

Each vote cast represented one share of stock in the college at $48 a share. When the votes were counted, Liberty had won by a majority of 193. The ballot stood: Booneville, 107; Palmyra, 194; Fulton, 44; and Liberty, 538. Dr. Lawson said that the votes of Howard county were cast in favor of Liberty, thus assuring the election for Clay County.

The naming of the new college remained yet to be done. According to Dr. Lawson, the work attendant on the selection of a site had occupied the whole of August 21, so the convention adjourned until the next day. In the meantime, Col. Doniphan, according to Lawson's account, prepared a resolution outlining the labors of Dr. Jewell in the cause of liberal culture, and proposing that the college be called "William Jewell College". This resolution was offered the next day by the Rev. William C. Ligon, seconded by Doniphan and unanimously adopted. In gratitude, Dr. Jewell donated to the College, lands in Missouri worth $10,000 and afterward gave the institution a large part of his wealth.

The Rev. E. S. Dulin was "Principal" of the College at its opening in 1850. The new College building, Jewell Hall, was used in 1853, although it was not completed until 1858. The presidents and heads of the College have included: Rev. R. S. Thomas, Rev. William Thompson, Rev. Edwin I. Owen, Rev. Thomas Rambaut, Rev. William R. Rothwell, Prof. James G. Clark, Dr. John P. Greene, Dr. David Jones, Evans, Dr. Harry Clifford Wayman and Dr. John F. Herget, president since 1928. The first building of the College was erected on land donated by Judge James T. V. Thompson of Liberty. Today the College has a campus of 1000 acres and numerous buildings. From an enrollment of 137 during the year 1850-1, the College has grown until the catalog of 1930-1 showed a total in all divisions and sessions of 602.

GEESSE THINK GREENHOUSE IS A POND AND DIVE IN

Carthage, Mo., November 1.—Guy Tadlock, greenhouse owner, was sweeping up glass and feathers today.

Wakened from a sound sleep during the early hours of the morning by a terrifying crash, he rushed to his glass-covered nursery to find a flock of wild geese, confused by the city lights had mistaken the expanse of glass for a pond and crashed through fifty panes.

The frightened geese inside were endangering more windows and Tadlock alarmed, opened doors and drove them all out. They lost no time in continuing their flight southward.

BRITISH-FRENCH STOCKADE IS RESTORED IN MICHIGAN

Mackinaw City, Mich.—The stockade of Fort Michillimackinac, a British and French outpost from 1712 to 1781, and scene of the famous Indian massacre of June 4, 1763, is being restored.

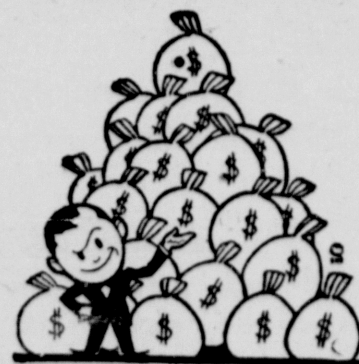

The line of the fort's stockade has been traced by excavations which disclosed stumps of upright logs still existing a foot or two beneath the surface. Crude hard-ware, muskets and many other relics also were uncovered.

Seventy-one British soldiers were killed in 70 minutes at the fort in 1763 when the Chippewas made a surprise attack after inviting the soldiers out to watch a game of baggatiway. The soldiers were overpowered when the Indians rushed inside the stockade, apparently in pursuit of a ball battered over the wall.

The Economy of Proper Equipment

Makeshift equipment of any sort is COSTLY. "Getting out cheaply" at the moment may involve tremendous expense in the long run, and millions of home builders have discovered this to their sorrow.

Cheap, make-shift plumbing equipment—more than one-third of which is buried from sight in earth, walls and foundations—may cause great trouble and expense when it breaks down, as it surely will. GOOD EQUIPMENT, installed by experienced master plumbers who apply engineering science to their trade, is an investment in economy, good health and happiness.

"ALLIED YOUTH" FORMED IN CHARLESTON SUNDAY

Charleston, October 31.—Sunday night, the first branch of Allied Youth organized in Missouri, outside of the major cities, was formulated in Charleston. Answering a call from the leaders in all the churches seventy-five young people responded and enrolled as charter members of this unit of the Allied Youth for Prohibition.

F. H. Scofield, Jr., was appointed as temporary president. The organization will proceed this week with all expediency and a meeting will be called soon to elect permanent officers. This organization will have a dual purpose. It shall be an inspiration to the young people of Charleston to lead a temperate and moral life under the guidance of God; and it shall bring the truth of prohibition to those young people who never saw a saloon and who have been misled by the present wet propaganda.

The Allied Youth for Prohibition is a little more than one year old. It is led by Fred S. Stripp, Jr., athlete in the University of California, who is the new 1932 National President. At the time of the National Convention in June at Atlantic City, N. J., resolution in support of the 18th Amendment was presented to President Hoover by a committee representing a 1,500,000 enrollment.

Sunday night, after the meeting, Wallace Lee Oliver of St. Louis, said: "This meeting illustrates and confirms my belief in American Youth. A few had ones do not contaminate the majority of young people. All we want is a chance to be good and we do not believe that this would be easy and in many cases possible with an inviting saloon on every corner. When seventy-five young people stand before me with a bright intelligent countenance as these young people have done tonight, and raise their right hands and repeat with me, 'God helping me I will see this thing through', I rest assured that the future of National Prohibition is sound. To those who attempt to defame us young people, I say that a Ford full of drunk fools out here on the highway will cause more comment than a church packed with young people trying to do what is righteous."

The Forgotten Man

By EDWIN MARKHAM

Dedicated to Franklin D. Roosevelt, after hearing his lofty and noble appeal for the Forgotten Man.

—Edwin Markham

NOT on our golden fortunes builded high—
Not on our boasts that soar into the sky—
Not upon these resting in this hour
The fate of the future; but upon the power
Of him who is forgotten—yes, on him
Rest all our hopes reaching from rim to rim.
In him we see all of earth's toiling bands,
With crooked backs, scarred faces, shattered hands.

HE seeks no office and he asks no praise
For all the patient labor of his days.
He is the one supporting the huge weight;
He is the one guarding the country's gate.
He bears the burdens on these earthly ways;
We pile the debts, he is the one who pays.
He is the one who holds the solid power
To steady nations in their trembling hour.
Behold him as he silently goes by,
For it is at his word that nations die.

SHATTERED with loss and lack,
He is the man who holds upon his back
The continent and all its mighty loads—
This toiler who makes possible the roads
On which the gilded thousands travel free—
Makes possible our feasts, our roaring boards.
Our pumps, our easy days, our golden hoards.
He gives stability to nations; he
Makes possible our nation, sea to sea.
His strength makes possible our college walls—
Makes possible our legislative halls—
Makes possible our churches soaring high
With spires, the fingers pointing to the sky.

SHALL then this man go hungry, here in lands
Blest by his honor, builded by his hands?
Do something for him: let him never be
Forgotten: let him have his daily bread:
He who has fed us, let him now be fed.
Let us remember all his tragic lot—
Remember, or else be ourselves forgot!

ALL honor to the one that in this hour
Cries to the world as from a lighted tower
Cries for the Man Forgotten: Honor the one
Who asks for him a glad place in the sun—
He is a voice for the voiceless. Now, indeed,
We have a tongue that cries the mortal need.

Toddling from Mother to 'Mike' Was Start of 'Bix's' Radio Career

ROBERT BIXBY

Going directly from nursery to stage was the unique experience of Robert Bixby, popular young radio and stage juvenile.

Robert Bixby—"Bix" to his friends, the popular young juvenile who plays the part of Bobby Regent in that gripping radio serial "Chandu the Magician" first smelt grease paint at the age of four and he's been before the public ever since.

"Bix's" mother was an actress and so his transition from the nursery to the stage was inevitable. Between the ages of nine and eleven, he toured the East in various productions and when he was twelve, he made his debut as a radio singer.

After a year of that he went to the stage, where he played so many bad boys and incorrigible little brothers of leading women, that today at the age of twenty, his friends are kept in a quandary as to just what prank he'll think of next.

"Bix" isn't very tall, but he's fairly slim, has blonde hair and hazel eyes and is regarded as a typical American youth—for he doesn't believe in standing or sitting still for more than a minute at a time.

As a popular young juvenile, at one time he edited a series of advertisements called "Bobby Says—" all about what the well-dressed young man wears, and Bobby still says and knows.

When "an enthusiastic young voice" was needed to play the role of Bobby Regent in the "Chandu the Magician" radio serial that is thrilling millions nightly, it was natural for "Bix" to get the role.

Portraying the part of Bobby Regent with his customary energy and enthusiasm, "Bix" regards it as the greatest role ever given to a youngster.

SIKESTON MUNY PLANT DISCREDITED IN FIGHT AT PARAGOULD, ARK.

The Siketon Standard is in receipt of an interesting letter from Paragould, Ark., dated November 2 from Rupert C. Wright, editor of the Paragould Daily Press. The letter should be of interest to every loyal citizen of Siketon inasmuch as Mr. Wright has a bit of information which will shed additional light upon the operations of the Power Trust especially during election time.

We quote Mr. Wright: "The writer has heard quite a number of reports, many of them adverse reports, with reference to the success of the Siketon municipally-owned and operated light plant, we would be very glad to receive from you some specific information upon the subject. We recently published a statement from your plant but that was for a period ending during last spring. What we would like to know is how the enterprise is faring now and if the citizens of Siketon, as a whole, are favorably impressed with the venture the city has made."

"You perhaps have read that we conducted an election upon the municipal proposal here Monday of last week and the proposal was defeated by a majority of 18 votes. But such an election it was. Since the opposition was inclined to discredit the Siketon plant, we are wanting the straight situation so that we shall be safe in dealing with the situation there editorially."

Well, Mr. Wright, we could give you the straight about a great many things and one thing in particular. The paid agents of the folks you have to fight in such an election will stop at nothing, to win their point. If they have not already done so, you people will be brought face to face with the 'tax' bugaboo. This bugaboo exists mostly in the minds of the High Line folks, but it is usually very efficient in scaring into their camp the bankers of your city, the large property owners, and a nice handful of small property owners.

You can quote us or you can come up in person and investigate our city tax books, but not one cent has been collected in Siketon in taxes for the construction, maintenance or operation of the Siketon municipal light and power plant. And why, oh why, were we fed with a load of propaganda on the tax proposition before our own little light?

That's club No. 1. We must anticipate a little in writing this because you failed to give us specific instances in which the local plant was discredited. We might digress a moment, however, and point out that that is one of the salient factors in such a Power Trust Fight. You cannot lay your finger upon any certain point, nor can you trace its origin any such rumor. They are a clever people.

You might tell the folks in Paragould that they will be welcome to visit our city, daytime or night. At night we have a mighty fine white way system lighted in the business district, and if you or the Power boys down there think we're not proud of those lights, you're crazy.

And furthermore, Siketon taxpayers have never paid a dime of the installation costs of those lights (which are as modern as skilled engineering can make them) or the plant.

You mention, Mr. Wright, that you want a specific information in order to combat editorially some of the adverse reports from our city. You have us there. You see, we have only been in the newspaper business here for sixteen consecutive years, and we, perhaps will not be in a position to give you as much information about our city as some of the paid agents who have visited your city in order to discredit Siketon. We will find that to be the truth.

You do have a plant erected in 1930, at a cost of $150,000 for which bonds were issued. To date every interest payment has been met, and several thousand dollar bonds have been redeemed altho' they do not fall due for five or six years.

It is the boast of the Missouri Utilities Company, which is in business here also, that the Missouri Utilities Company maintains the lowest rate schedule of any electric company in the Middle West. You might tell your people, Mr. Wright, that the Siketon Municipal light plant charges its customers the same, identical rates, no more and no less.

The politics bugaboo is another skeleton usually hauled into a fight such as yours. We have solved that question successfully to date by having the Mayor appoint a bi-partisan Board of Public Works, which actually runs the plant, dictates its policies, leaving actual management and supervision to a superintendent hired and fired by itself. The Board is answerable only to the Mayor and City Council.

You have not given us much to work on Mr. Wright, but please allow us to extend an invitation to visit us, spend a day and night up here in Missouri. You will go back preaching the doctrine of municipal ownership.

On the Way Up With Roosevelt and Garner!

The Real Forgotten Man

The plain citizen—the average citizen—in economic bondage to a handful of men of great wealth—is the real forgotten man. Two-thirds of American industry is concentrated in a few hundred corporations and actually managed by not more than five thousand human beings. More than half the savings of the country are invested in corporate stocks and bonds, and made the sport of the American stock market—as Franklin Roosevelt pointed out in his Columbus speech. The plain citizen—the average citizen—has been forgotten and ignored completely by those in power.

Protect Your Share in America!

Here Are Facts to Make Sikestonians Proud of Their Hub City of Southeast Mo.

The following facts were related to visitors attending a recent convention in the city by Dan G. Pepper, Superintendent of the Municipal Light and Power Company. Those who have relative and friends living out State, or in other parts of the Union, might be interested in sending a clipping. Otherwise the facts might be preserved for future reference.

The City of Siketon has spent since 1909 more than one-fourth million dollars improving its facilities to make the town a better place to live in.

Our assessed valuation for tax purposes for 1932 amounts to $2,650,073. Our population is slightly less than 6000.

We are justly proud of our school system and it's faculty. Of our high school athletic building and field. Our football games are played under floodlights at night and is the best illuminated high school field in Missouri, the light intensity being 880,000 lumens or 88,000 candle power. Our "Bulldogs" aided on the side line by the "Red Peppers", school girl cheers, will next Friday night give their undivided attention to the Perryville eleven and if you want to see how a "Bulldog" can handle a ball stay over and see that game.

While in Siketon, we ask that you visit the factory of the International Shoe Company, where annually 1,000,000 pairs of men's low and medium welt shoes are made by the five to six hundred people employed in that factory.

We also have in Siketon a thriving wholesale grocery concerning McKnight-Keaton Grocery Company, this concern distributes in Siketon and vicinity more than $500,000 worth of merchandise, wholesale.

We have in Siketon two banks, both being built on firm foundations and enjoying the patronage and confidence of our people.

Our main thoroughfares are paved and our outlying streets are oiled or well kept. They are lighted by 176-250 candle power bracket type lighting units, while our business district is lighted by its whiteway, consisting of 102 400-candlepower posts.

We are proud of our new post-office, built from an appropriation of $75,000, and it is a beauty.

Our fire protection is good. We have more than $150,000 invested in our eleven churches.

Division No. 10 Highway Department, 12 counties. New office and garage built on a lot donated by the Siketon Chamber of Commerce. Employs straight time 190, 50 of which are in Siketon. Bring salaries in Siketon $7500 each month. 694 extra men employed in September at $9700. During 1931

$3,075,000 spent. Owns and maintains all equipment.

Troop E of the Highway Patrol have headquarters at the Division office in Siketon.

The Scott County Milling Company employs a total of 253 persons, and the mechanical divisions are able to turn out a total of 1500 barrels of flour, 2000 barrels of meal, grits, corn flour and 600 tons of feed per day.

Products of the milling concern are sold in two-thirds of the 48 States.

The Company is capitalized at one and one-half million dollars, with about one million dollars paid in.

The quality of its main product, flour, is such that it is supplied regularly to some of the largest cake and specialty houses in the country. Wheat of this district is especially adapted to making a flour for fine cakes.

Reduced to tons, products of the milling company required 5,500 minimum freight cars which hauled a total of 110,000 tons of products in the period of 1931-32 from June 1 to June 1.

In Siketon we have good hotel facilities.

The Malone Theatre, a modern up-to-date place of amusement furnishes us with shows, which are among the best.

Our Siketon cotton gins and cotton planters move 6000 to 7,000 bales of cotton annually, which ordinarily would bring $500,000.

Cotton production has been known to be 1½ to 2 bales per acre with good conditions. We have three gins.

In 1931 Siketon built a modern electric light and power plant at a cost of more than $150,000, of which Siketonians are proud. Our water plant is located on the same lot, with the power plant. It is making money and during it's first year its net profit to the City amounted to approximately $19,000. Siketon's only source of revenue outside of taxation comes from its water and light plants.

You are welcomed to our city, and if you find time available, it would give us pleasure to escort you through our city.

The Mayor and our citizens join in handing to you the key to our city for your enjoyment while with us.
